Summary

I have been involved in drama at school since 2016, acting in stage performances and short films where I have developed a passion for performing. I have been a member of Buderim Youth Theatre of Excellence School (BYTES) and completed courses through The Australian Actors Studio to further my acting skills. Currently I am enrolled at Leigh Parker Acting Studio. I am keen to learn, am reliable, have good listening skills and am able to remember lines. My goal is to have a variety of skills to expand my acting career.
