

WABA PRO

Waba Media Pro is a cinematic wedding production company founded by Shadrack Honda, who serves as the CEO. Originally from the Democratic Republic of Congo, Shadrack's journey into filmmaking began in 2009 while he was in a refugee camp in Uganda. His passion for storytelling and capturing moments led him to establish Waba Media Pro after relocating to Norway in 2014, where he continued to develop his career in wedding cinematography.

At 30 years old, Shadrack brings a unique perspective to his work, blending his rich cultural background with a deep understanding of the emotions that come with weddings. Waba Media Pro focuses on creating stunning visual narratives that reflect each couple's unique love story, ensuring that every moment is beautifully documented and cherished for a lifetime.
