What is the funding for?

The Rental Protection Fund provides capital contributions to non-profit housing organizations to help them purchase existing, occupied, purpose-built rental buildings – and retain their affordability and stability over time.

Contributions from the Fund fill the equity gap to support these acquisitions, and support the capacity and growth of the non-profit housing sector throughout communities in B.C.

Together, we can make an incredible difference in the lives of families in our community.

"Homeownership, simply put, was a dream before Habitat for Humanity. Always a goal but, in reality, I never believed I'd have a home to call our own. Without Habitat, my family would not have a home to build lifelong memories, to feel what being part of a community is. My wish is to give back!" – Sara, Habitat partner family since 2017

"I left an abusive marriage with two kids and $40 in my pocket. I lived in homes not fit for animals. But then God blessed me with the help I desperately needed - and Habitat Fredericton is top on the list. Thank you for your grace in the times I stumbled and the hand to help me back up "

-Wendy, Habitat partner family since 2012

Why aim for 20% community housing in Canada?

Canada is facing an unprecedented housing crisis, and finding sustainable solutions is urgent. Setting a target of 20% community housing (up from 3.5% currently) is a necessary step to ensure equitable housing access and greater community resilience. It's a long-term vision rooted in sustainability, inclusion, and collective action.

Thank you!
