Label all seed donations with seed type, variety if known, and year it was grown/saved. The Mysterious Seed 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM. Learn about the mysterious seed with gardening educator Lisa Taylor. Lisa will explore life cycles, pollination, and more through music, creative drama, and puppetry! NATURE COLORED SCAVENGER HUNT

Spring is here, and it's the perfect time for a fun and free activity at home: Here's how to do it: 1. Gather Supplies: Grab some paper, colored markers, or crayons. Create a list of colors (like green, yellow, pink, etc.) that you want to find in nature. 2. Set Your Boundaries: Decide whether you'll be hunting in your backyard, a nearby park, or even just around your neighborhood. 3. Start the Hunt: Go outside and look for natural items that match the colors on your list! This could be flowers, leaves, rocks, or even insects. 4. Document Your Finds: Take pictures or collect small items (if it's allowed) to create a colorful collage later. 5. Share Your Results: Once you're done, share your findings with friends or family, or tag us!! This activity is not only fun but also a great way to appreciate the beauty of spring while exploring your surroundings. Happy hunting!!

EASTER TRIVIA

Question: What state held the largest Easter egg hunt ever in the United States?

Answer: Florida

HOT CROSS BUNS RECIPE

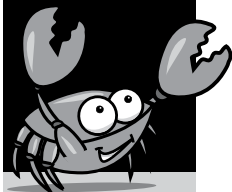

Spiced, sweet Hot Cross Buns recipe, which is a lovely sweet bread with mixed fruit perfect for Easter and springtime baking.

INGREDIENTS: Bun Dough: Bread flour; Ground mixed spice: A combo of cinnamon, coriander seed, caraway, nutmeg, ginger, cloves, allspice, and mace; Salt: Just a pinch; Butter: Feel free to use salted or unsalted butter, just make sure to keep it cold and cut it into cubes. Save some on the side for greasing your baking she; Granulated sugar: Granulated sug; Lemon zest; Instant dried yeast; One large egg; Egg wash: To make egg wash, beat one large egg and a tablespoon of milk until well combined. Egg-washing your pastry will create a nice, shiny finish; Milk; Raisins; Honey. Icing: Powdered sugar; Vanilla extract; Milk.

DIRECTIONS: In a bowl, sieve the flour, salt, and mixed spice. Then, rub in the butter using your fingertips until the mixture is the texture of fine breadcrumbs. Stir in the sugar, lemon zest, and yeast. Beat the egg with warm milk and add to the dry ingredients. Mix together to form a soft, pliable dough. Turn out the dough onto a lightly floured surface. Sprinkle over the dried fruit and knead the dough lightly. The dough should be smooth and elastic with dried fruit throughout. Grease a bowl with oil. Shape the dough into a ball and place it into the prepared bowl. Cover with plastic wrap and set aside in a warm place to proof. The dough should double in size. Turn out the proofed dough onto a lightly floured work surface and divide it into equal pieces. Roll each piece into a ball. Grease a baking sheet with butter, and transfer the buns to the tray in rows. Cover with plastic wrap and return to a warm spot to proof for another hour until the rolls are proofed together. After the second proof, preheat the oven. Brush the buns with egg wash for a shiny finish. Bake until golden brown and shiny. As soon as you remove the buns from the oven, brush them with a little warmed honey or golden syrup. Set aside to cool on a wire rack. Frosting the Buns: Whisk together the icing ingredients until smooth but stiff enough to hold their shape. If it is too stiff, add a splash more milk. Scoop icing into a piping bag fitted with a small nozzle. Carefully pipe crosses on the cooled buns. Set aside while the icing sets for 30 minutes. Serve the buns with butter and a big cup of tea.

KONA

Kona is somewhat of a celebrity around Camano Island and Stanwood. Kona is a Bernese Mountain Dog and the star of his own children's book entitled, On Kona's Pond. It is the adventure about Kona and the animals that live in and around the pond where he lives on Camano Island. Kona is a therapy dog and travels to schools, libraries, and retirement homes along with his owner and the author of the book, Michelle LeFevre. Kona has a gentle spirit and he and Michelle love to share his story with kids and adults alike. While traveling in the area, Kona has made a special impact with the special needs children and the memory care residents that he has met along the way. He has this love inside him that helps him to know that he needs to spend some extra time with these special children and adults. They have become magical and unforgettable moments and we realize that this goes far beyond the sharing and reading of the book. Children that were so afraid of dogs soon became connected to Kona's love and support. He even gently placed his head on the laps of children and adults in wheelchairs so that they could feel his love. Kona is a gentle giant that has touched many lives in the two years that the book has been out. Kona will be participating in the Children's Book Fair on April 26th at St Aiden's Church on the Island if you would like to come and hear the story and meet him and the other authors participating in the event.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT ON THE "ART ISLAND"

Not so very long ago Camano Island was essentially undiscovered, tucked between Whidbey and the mainland, hidden in the Straits. Most of us can't remember the logging era, the Mabana chicken ranch days, the resort era or the time of one room schoolhouses. Camano wasn't 'known' or labelled the way, say, Stanwood was a river town or Pt. Townsend and La Connor were Victorian towns, historical places, locked in their identities. Camano was a tabula rosa, a blank slate, and when the urban masses finally did discover the island, it was fast becoming a retirement place and a commuter enclave.

Back in the '90's a few artists banded together and joined the Chamber of Commerce to build the Camano Gateway. Businesses and individuals donated time and money and materials to make a small vision a larger reality. Once completed, that successful project was rewarded with 3 plus acres for a sculpture park that became Freedom Park, an aesthetic landmark in the strategic location where islanders either turn south or west.

The Stanwood Art Guild created Art by the Bay about the same time, a yearly event going on now for over a quarter century, followed shortly by the annual Mother's Day Studio Tour organized by the Camano Arts Association (CAA). In the years that wandered into the 21st Century, little by little the island slowly became a sort of Art Island. Artist studios sprang up and flourished, galleries opened, public buildings sported sculptures, interior artworks and stained glass murals. Fire stations, the Senior Centers, the Administration Building, the thrift store, Grange hall --- art was everywhere on display.

Over the past two years, the Gateway Center re-imagined itself, replaced the battered stained glass front with a new glasswork, re-modeled the building and turned it the Gateway Gallery and Visitor Information funded by the CAA. What is being imagined now is to encourage the next generation of artists to step into their own future. And to that end CAA's Gateway Gallery is giving our young people, our next generation of artists, an opportunity to show their work and for the island to view a new vision from fresh eyes. The Art Island will be theirs to imagine, to remake in their image. This will be a preview of what will come next.

April 26th through June 8th the Gateway Gallery will feature stained, fused, and mosaic glass, ceramics, photography, painting, and drawing from Stanwood High School art students. Come celebrate them Saturday April 26th from 4pm to 6pm!

EASTER TRIVIA

Answer:

SPRING UPDATE: CELEBRATING GENEROSITY

"Just last week we came together to celebrate the community contributions of our 19th Annual Philanthropists of the Year. Our award recipients are: Barbara Christoferson (Clarene Ricarte Pay-It-Forward Award); Mark & Debbie Phibbs (Floyd & Delores Jones Spirit of Philanthropy Award); Seaside Services - Chad & Jennie Davis (Heritage Bank Organization Making a Difference Award); Dan Haskins - Boscovet USA (Hometown Hero Award). I also got to share some information from our annual report, which highlights the impact that SCAF is able to have through the generosity of our donors. I want to reiterate a couple of those points here for those that were not able to attend. Most people have heard about the impact of our scholarship program, but did you know our commitment goes far beyond handing out certificates? We focus on the success of our students before and after they receive their awards. The generosity of our community allowed me to spend an evening on Zoom, walking a recent graduate through the FAFSA application process—helping her navigate a complicated system that didn't recognize her unique situation. When she faced setbacks, we stayed in touch, exchanging 55 text messages as she figured out her next steps. She moved across the country, applied to another technical college, and finally used her scholarship funds. She wanted to give up, but we wouldn't let that happen. We visited our local high schools seven times this year to help students successfully complete their scholarship applications. We tracked down transcripts, chased down recommendations, and took calls from parents—all to ensure every student had the opportunity to participate. "I know you've received many thank you letters and I decided to send this thank you a little later so I could emphasize the importance of you're kind gesture. I live with my grandparents who have custody of my sister and me. They are in their 60's and should be preparing for retirement, but instead they have had to sacrifice a lot for us. All help is greatly appreciated, and your scholarship helps achieve my goals and makes everyone in our home extremely happy. From my heart and my families, Thank you." - HS Scholarship Recipient. This past year, we also piloted an Educational Enhancement Grant program, getting funds directly into the hands of teachers and staff for needs that otherwise wouldn't be funded. In uncertain times, it matters that we can look our educators and students in the eye and say, "We care about you. We support you." The generosity of our community makes this happen. If you haven't already done so, I hope you'll take a moment to read our annual report and see all the ways that we are creating a stronger Stanwood-Camano community. If you would like to sponsor an Adult Scholarship, the deadline is May 1. We'd love to partner with you in this way." With gratitude, Natalie Hagglund.

127,000 POUNDS OF DOG POOP

Did you know there are an estimated 170,000 dogs in Snohomish County? Together, they produce over 127,000 pounds of poop EVERY DAY! Unfortunately, rain washes bacteria from pet waste through ditches, drains and into our waterways. High levels of bacteria can make our lakes, rivers, and even Puget Sound unsafe for people, pets and aquatic life. Do your part: Scoop the poop, bag it, and put it in the trash. Learn more at <https://www.snohomishcountywa.gov/3366>.

THE BLOOM'N PLANT SALE

is sprouting back up this spring, with vibrant annuals, hardy perennials, veggie starts, herbs, and gorgeous flower baskets — all grown by Stanwood High School's horticulture students! From seed to sale, students in Greenhouse Production and Horticultural Science have been digging deep all year long to grow a wide variety of plants. But it doesn't stop at the soil — they're also cultivating real-world business skills by managing the sales floor themselves. The community is invited to stop by the greenhouse parking lot on the north side of Stanwood High School to shop the organically grown selection. Proceeds go right back into the horticulture program, helping it continue to grow and flourish. Opening day is April 23. Sale runs from the last week of April through the first week of May. Hours: 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays; and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturdays. Want a sneak peek at what's blooming? ACE HARDWARE - MARCH ROUND-UP

"This is a happy story --- I sat in my car at the IGA parking lot yesterday. Pondering the possible response to the round-up for the South Camano Grange, as we have property taxes ($1,750) due at the end of April. Well, hummm - it's been a month, my best guess $35.50 - maybe stretching to $ 65.75. The Ace Hardware Manager Danie Couchon, said. She would go get the check for the Grange....she almost had to pick me up off the floor - the check was for $2,342.90. I almost started to cry (me a full grown man), as I returned to my car check in hand I was dumb founded, how many wonderful people rounded up? At 50 cents each round up, that would be 4,686 customers. OMG wish I could thank each and everyone! And, I do thank you all." - Mike Nestor

We are an organization of bakers (from those who have never baked to professional bakers) who fight food insecurity from our home kitchens. There are over 900 bakers serving 46 food banks in 60 neighborhood in 5 states. Originating in Kirkland, to date we have donated over 188,291 loaves and 186,956 Energy cookies. In March of 2025 we connected with the Stanwood - Camano Food Bank delivering fresh whole grain bread and healthy energy cookies twice a month. We have bakers of all ages and backgrounds and we need more! We spoke with the food bank recently and they told us of the value of fresh wholesome bread. The majority of baked items they receive can be sugar heavy. Having high quality fresh baked nutritious bread and energy cookies is a helpful addition to their baked offerings. Join us in baking the world a better place from your home kitchen. CONTACT: www.communityloaves.org.

CARROT CAKE CUPCAKES

My favorite spice cake filled with shredded carrots, crushed pineapple, coconut, chopped pecans and sweet raisins, topped with cream cheese frosting and these cute candy carrots!

CAKE: 2 c. all-purpose flour; 2 tsp. ground cinnamon; 2 tsp. baking soda; 1 tsp. salt; 2 c. granulated sugar; 4 lg. eggs; 1 c. vegetable oil; 2 tsp. vanilla extract; 3 c. shredded carrots; 1/2 c. crushed pineapple; 1/2 c. shredded coconut; 1/2 c. chopped pecans; 1/2 c. raisins

CREAM CHEESE FROSTING: 1 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, room temperature; 1/2 c. butter, softened; 1 lb. confectioners' sugar; Lemon juice as needed; Green and orange candy melts, optional

DIRECTIONS: 1. CAKE: Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line two standard muffin tins with 24 paper cupcake cups. 2. In a medium bowl, whisk together flour, cinnamon, soda and salt; set aside. 3. In a large bowl, beat sugar, eggs, and oil until well combined. Gradually add flour mixture, beat until combined. Stir in shredded carrots, pineapple, coconut, pecans and raisins. 4. Pour batter into cupcake cups filling them 2/3 full. Bake for 20 minutes. Cool in pan for 10 minutes, and then remove to wire racks to cool completely before frosting. 5. CREAM CHEESE FROSTING: In a large bowl, beat together cream cheese, butter and confectioners' sugar. If too stiff add lemon juice until spreading consistency is achieved. Pipe or frost cupcakes and decorate with a candy melt carrot if desired. 6. CANDY MELT CARROTS: Line a baking sheet with wax paper. Melt the green candy melts per the package instructions then transfer to a re-sealable plastic bag or piping bag. Cut off the tip and pipe the greens of each carrot. 7. Melt the orange candy melts per the package instructions then transfer them to a re-sealable plastic bag or piping bag. Cut off the tip and pipe the shape of a carrot partially overlapping the bottom of each green stem so the two parts stick together. 8. Place the baking sheet in the refrigerator for 5 minutes or until the candy melts have fully hardened. Using an offset spatula, carefully release each carrot from the baking sheet and place on top of frosted cupcakes. 9. Once the cupcakes have cooled completely, top them with the cream cheese frosting and a candy melt carrot.

THE SIMPLE SECRET TO LOSING WEIGHT AND STAYING FIT

Hey friend. Have you tried every diet plan known to mankind and still can't seem to lose your unwanted belly fat? Did you abstain from all alcohol and carbs completely for the past two months, only to step on the scale and discover you gained three pounds?

Well, friend, if this sounds all too familiar, there's a simple explanation for why you can't seem to shed the pounds and get those six-pack abs. YOU'RE DOING IT ALL WRONG!

But at Miracle Fitness Solutions (a wholly owned subsidiary of In-N-Out Burger) we have some exciting news. Introducing a revolutionary new diet and fitness plan that will guarantee you'll lose at least 50 pounds and get into the best shape of your life (assuming you don't die in the process).

I'm Tim Jones, president and CEO of Miracle Fitness Solutions. And I'm about to change your life. Forget about all those diet pills and Kale & Tofu shake diets. Don't waste your time on the Eat-Nothing-But-Do-nuts Diet. I tried it. Sure, it was delicious, but I gained 12 pounds in three weeks.

Forget everything you thought you knew about getting into shape. Those fad shortcuts are designed to suck cash from your pockets. But our program lets you pay by credit card. Isn't it time you put your faith in a Scientifically (un)Proven program that will have your friends wondering, what's wrong with you what's your secret?

Let me explain. My Program is the FOUR S Super Fitness System: Stretch, Steps, Supplements, ... oh and Starve.

Stretch, in other words, Exercise. Did you know that the human body has over 600 muscles, divided into 14 distinct muscle groups? These muscle groups are the Abdominal, Obliques, Pectoral, Deltoid, Trapezius, Latissimus Dorsi, Erector Spinae, Biceps, Triceps, Quadriceps, Hamstrings, Gastrocnemius, Soleus, and Gluteus.

But the only muscle groups our program requires you to work on are the ones just listed in the previous paragraph. By devoting no more than 30 minutes a day to each of these 14 critical muscle groups, within two years, you'll have a body like the Statue of David. Please allow approximately 12 weeks for your various muscle, ligament, and tendon tears to heal from all the over-exertion you'll be putting your body through.

Steps. After you've finished stretching, toning, and lifting weights for seven hours, it's time to get your daily steps in. We'll provide you with your own Fitbit step counter (for an additional $500). I recommend you start off with a modest, achievable goal so as not to feel overwhelmed. Shoot for no more than 25,000 steps a day during your first week. Gradually increase your step count over the next four weeks until you're regularly walking a distance equivalent to the length the Appalachian Trail every week.

Supplements. Here are the supplements you need to be taking every day: Vitamin D, Calcium, Vitamin C, Vitamin B12, Magnesium, Iron, fish oil, motor oil, Chromium, Viagra, Riboflavin, Glucose, Sucrose, pretty much any ingredient listed on a bottle of Mountain Dew, Ginseng, Zinc Gluconate, Gluc Zinconate, Garlic, Wheat Chex, CoQ10, Prevagen, Floragen-3, Floragen-5 (but NOT Floragen-4), Niobium, Aluminum, Uranium, Plutonium, Titanium – in fact pretty much any substance ending in “ium” – Antimony, Protimony, Alimony, and at least half of the 118 elements on the Periodic Table – but not the dangerous ones.

For optimal results, consume them in alphabetical order. I don't know why. Just trust me on this.

Starve. You will need to cut out the following toxic foods from your body for at least six months: all breads, cheese, dairy, meat, sweets, starches, and well, pretty much any food that gives you enjoyment and happiness. But feel free to eat as much Brussel's sprouts and cauliflower as you want to – unless these foods give you happiness.

It is imperative you only eat between noon and 2:30pm and drink 600 ounces of water a day, so your body can flush out the toxins. And best of all, you only have to fast one day a week. Personally, I recommend Thursday. But many of our customers prefer Tuesday. It's up to you.

If you stick with my revolutionary plan there is no reason you can't lose 50 pounds in three weeks and be in the best shape of your life – assuming you survive those three weeks.

OUR 100% SATISFACTION GUARANTEE: If you are not completely satisfied with your results from the Four S Super Fitness Program, we guarantee that we will send you an attractive, framed commemorative certificate explaining in detail our no-refund policy.

Or you can submit an appeal requesting an exception to our no-refund policy by sending a certified copy of your birth certificate, copies of your five most recent federal tax returns, your high school prom photo, a mint-condition 1951 rookie season Mickey Mantle baseball card, and a check in the amount of $150 for processing and handling. It won't help, but thanks in advance for the additional $150.
