Bee Name/Activity	Meeting time	Meeting Place	Contact Person
Community Service A team of caring quilters who dedicate themselves to making quilts for various charitable organizations. We recently reached over 10,000 quilts donated! All quilters are welcome to stop on by!	1st Monday 9:00 - 2:00	Chota Room A	Lori Rorstad lori_rorstad@hotmail.com
Divas + 1 We meet to help each other with on-going projects, share new ideas and techniques, bring in ideas to inspire each other and occasionally will all work together on a single project for a specific cause. We are a group bound in friendship and the love of quilting and happily welcome any who would like to join us.	1st and 4th Wednesday 8:30 - 4:30	Chota Room A	Claudia Nicholson gosewmojo@gmail.com
Helping Hands We gather twice a month for fellowship and fun. We laugh a lot as we work on a variety of projects including UFO's, piecework, machine applique, and assist each other with block layouts and new techniques. Please feel free to drop in at one of our meetings!	2nd and 4th Saturdays 9:30 - 4:30	Chota Room A	Jeanne Ruoff jlruoff@gmail.com
History-Holics Is a group that has a great interest in quilt history from quilt patterns to fabrics to trends in quilting. We share books, old quilts, research on various topics and field trips from time to time. Come join us at any of our meetings.	3rd Wednesday 10AM - Noon	Chota Room A	Janey Coombes jrcoombes@charter.net
Judy Niemeyer Bee Ever been overwhelmed by a Judy Neimeyer or other paper piecing project? A few years ago, one of our members, Pat Bilski, recognized our frustration and began this bee to help us navigate through these difficult designs. Now we enjoy a collaborative journey assisting each other through our challenging projects. Our bee is open to anyone sewing on any project, although our main focus is any paper piecing project.	3rd Monday 9:00 - 5:00	Chota Room A	Cecelia Rivers cecelia.rivers1@gmail.com
Quilts for Kids/Mt. Pine Needlers We provide comfort quilts to seriously ill or abused kids. We are a chapter for the nationwide non-profit organization, Quilts For Kids. Our chapter donates quilts to East TN Children's Hospital in Knoxville. In addition, we donate quilts to children in crisis. Anyone is welcome to participate with the Bee.	2nd Saturday	Coker Creek Ruritan Club, 118 Ruritan Rd. Tellico Plains TN 37385	Marie Alberque mariealberque@aol.com
Quilts of Valor Part of the National Quilts for Valor Foundation, this group makes quilts that are given to our nation's heroes. Anyone is welcome to stop by one of our meetings to get more details about this worthwhile cause and/or participate in making a quilt.	4th Monday 9:00 - Noon	Chota Room A	Arliss Barber Flapper99@hotmail.com
Seamsters Union The Seamsters is a mostly social group who share their love of quilting with advice and encouragement. We meet monthly in members' homes where handwork is completed, "show and tell" is applauded, and new ideas are shared.	4th Wednesday 9:30 - 11:30	Individual homes	Donna Navratil donnanavratil@charter.net
Stitch Art Embroidery Bee This is just the place for those who have embroidery machines and love machine embroidery. Join us to share your creations along with your tips and tricks for achieving the best results and your ideas for using machine embroidery in our charitable work.	3rd Wednesday Noon - 5:00PM	Chota Room A	Cherie Oswald designguru85@yahoo.com
Wanna Bees We are an informal quilt bee that is open to any and all quilters who enjoy work on their quilting projects. Come sit and sew among friends who are willing to answer questions, provide guidance, and give opinions (when asked!)	2nd and 5th Wednesday 9:00 – 5:00	Chota Room A	Linda Brown lpbrown591@gmail.com