CONDITION & AUTHENTICATION STANDARDS

We want your items to shine on the resale market! This guide explains what qualifies as sellable, what we can't accept, and how we handle designer authentication and vintage pieces.

Items Must Be:

CLEAN & FRESH

- Laundered, wiped down, or disinfected prior to pickup or shipment
 - Free from pet hair, odors (smoke, mildew, perfume), or residue
 - Shoes should have clean soles and no debris inside

VISIBLY PRESENTABLE

- No pilling, stretching, fading, or excessive wear
- No missing buttons, broken zippers, holes, rips, snags, or stains
 - Jewelry must be untangled and not missing stones or clasps
- Bags must open/close properly, no sticky linings or major stains

STYLISH & IN DEMAND

- Less than 3–5 years old (unless timeless or true vintage)
- Boutique, premium, or designer styles always welcome
- Seasonal relevance preferred (e.g. sandals in spring, puffers in fall)

AUTHENTICATION POLICY

We do not accept:

- Replicas, counterfeit bags, or “inspired by” dupes labeled as authentic
- Items that cannot be verified via tag/serial/branding, or if provenance is unclear

We authenticate using:

- Internal brand guides (date codes, stitching, logo placement, etc.)
- AI-assisted and community tools (Entrupy, LegitGrails, brand-specific forums)
- Client-provided receipts or original packaging (if available—not required)
- Our own judgment based on market experience and brand construction

VINTAGE STANDARDS

We do accept vintage (20+ years old) if:

- It is designer, collectible, or classic
- In excellent condition with unique value
- Is aligned with current trends (e.g., 90s minimalism, Y2K, vintage Levi's)
- Has resale value: classic leather Coach, Dooney & Bourke AWL, Escada, etc.

We do not accept:

- Outdated styles with no resale interest (e.g., early 2000s juniors prom dresses, 80s shoulder-padded suits)
- Damaged vintage unless rare and repairable at a reasonable cost

Common Reasons We Decline Items

- Brand has little to no resale demand
- Style is outdated or oversaturated on resale sites
- Condition does not meet marketplace standards
 - Shoes are worn out or heavily creased
 - Bag linings are sticky, peeling, or damaged
- Items are wrinkled or smell strongly of storage, perfume, or pets
- Designer items that cannot be confidently authenticate or are lacking clear proof of authenticity
