

ABOUT BRITTNEY

At 21 years old Brittney Zamora has achieved race wins, won track championships, broken many track records, received multiple Rookie of the Year awards and received the prestigious NASCAR Wendall Scott Trailblazer Award. The award is presented annually to an outstanding minority or female driver that competes in the NASCAR Whelen All-American Series. The Wendell Scott Trailblazer Award is selected by a committee, based on nominations received from drivers, crew members and track operators.

Brittney is a second-generation driver that started racing at the age of five. Brittney's resume includes racing go-karts, mini stocks, late model, and she is now in her fifth season in Super Late Models (SLM) in the Northwest Super Late Models Series as well as her second season in the NASCAR ARCA West Series. Brittney's 2020 schedule includes NASCAR ARCA Series races and a select number of NASACR Xfinity Series races.

Brittney Zamora's Pit Road Pals was started to help increase awareness for shelter pets. Brittney believes that her racing platform and coast-to-coast travels provide unique opportunities for her to use the loyal NASCAR fan base and popularity in the pursuit to help find shelter pets forever homes. Brittney has made it her mission to be "Pedal Down For Pets" at each track she visits.
