

Practice Listening – Application

The Bible stories this month show us examples of people listening. These stories also show us examples of people not listening. Read the thought balloons below. Two of the One Room Kids are listening to Ms. Lopez talk about today's story. Who is really listening? Put a check mark next to the students who are listening. Put an X next to the students who are not.

