A Taste of Our Stories

Favourite Food Memories
From Faywood ABC School
2025

Food is more than just something we eat—it's a connection to who we are, our family and our community. A single dish can hold a story, a tradition, or a memory that stays with us forever.

In this book, students share their own unique, personal stories about food. Whether the stories are about sharing a meal with family and friends, cooking with a loved one, or simply their favorite meal, they remind us that food can be a catalyst to sharing stories that connect us together.

As you explore these stories, consider a dish in your life that sparks a memory.

About this Book:

Through the Young Changemakers: Koffler Arts Studio Program, Grade 7 & 8 students in Ms. Pineau's class created this beautiful story with artist Leah Gold, the Recreate Place team and Koffler Arts.

The image features a white background decorated with numerous small, oval-shaped confetti pieces in red, blue, and black. Four large, five-pointed stars are scattered across the scene: one blue star on the left, one blue star in the upper right, one red star in the lower right, and one red star in the lower center. A decorative border on the left side consists of a series of teardrop-shaped elements, each containing a mix of red, blue, and black paint-like textures. In the center of the image, there is a block of text in a typewriter-style font.

The Young Changemakers: Koffler Arts Studio Program (YCM) supports the artistic growth for students, resulting in the creation of art works in their school. This experience provides a unique opportunity for collaboration between artists, children, educators and community. We believe that equitable access to art can support children's overall wellbeing.

Thank you to the Ontario Trillium Foundation for generously supporting the Young Changemakers Program.

Project Partners:

Leah Gold:

Leah is a visual artist and educator who specializes in large scale, collaborative artworks. She creates approachable, low barrier settings for community members of all ages to experiment with drawing and printmaking processes. She then takes the products of these workshops, and uses them to compose diverse works, such as artist's books, tapestries, or installations. Leah holds a BFA from Concordia University, and is currently based in Toronto.

Koffler Arts:

Koffler Arts is a multi-disciplinary arts platform that celebrates Jewish artistic voices within a diverse and exploratory framework of pan-cultural contemporary expression. Our programming aims to stimulate questions and conversations through a multi-pronged offering of contemporary visual arts and human interest exhibitions, live performance, film and video, literary events and publications, accompanied by a robust program of artistic and educational engagement initiatives. We also partner with many other arts organizations across the city and beyond.

Recreate Place:

Recreate Place designs child-friendly experiences that prioritize the meaningful participation of children and young people in community art projects. We create age-appropriate experiences for children and youth to impact the designs, plans and decisions affecting their community. As lead Program Designers and Facilitators with YCM, it's an honour to be working closely with students to help see their ideas come to life!
