

Christian Savage

ENTREPRENEUR

Christian Savage is a vibrant young entrepreneur whose passion for transforming lives is exceedingly remarkable. 5-year-old Christian is the owner of The Adventures of Christian and Crew, a company that promotes family bonding, helps kids learn in a fun and unique way, and focuses on training youth with entrepreneurship skills. Christian looks forward to working with kids all over the world to foster growth and peaceful co-existence. His entrepreneurial spirit, coupled with the zeal to help kids become more confident and active growing members of the society, is a goal he is set to achieve.

Christian also serves as positive representation and recognition for African American kids who have often been underrepresented in many areas. With a variety of products such as educational books, bath and body products, book bags, toys, and monthly adventure subscription boxes he provides all children with fun and memorable experiences.

Christian loves being a big brother and has a fun, adventurous, and warmhearted personality. A leader in the making, he also loves directing and being behind the camera and earning money.
