

JEWEL DANIELS RADFORD

Entrepreneur | Author | Speaker

Jewel Daniels Radford is CEO of Daniels Communications, a global leadership development firm that serves clients in the Caribbean, Europe, and the United States. The Brooklyn-born tenacious entrepreneur is an engaging corporate trainer, author, and passionate speaker who has motivated several thousand conference and convention audiences.

A progressive leader who possesses exceptional business acumen and the ability to anticipate Learning & Development needs within an organization, Jewel has moved the needle of success for industry giants, small business owners, and non-profit organizations. She is one of those rare individuals who possess a natural gift to develop people to move from achieving personal success to the greatness that serves others

Jewel is an intelligent wordsmith and professed logophile. She is a profound storyteller with the masterful ability to take readers on a journey of well-researched information wrapped around relatable experiences that titillate the mind to embrace change, adjust perspective, and take decisive action. Her most recent work, Three Sides of Every Crisis speaks directly to the dual crises with a focus on strategies and solutions to explore to push past these obstacles and find new opportunities. She is the author of three additional books, It Takes Tenacity, 15 Power Moves to Survive the Wilderness and Weather the Economic Storm, The Enterprising Entrepreneur, and an eBook Growing Solopreneur Businesses through Collaboration.

She holds a master's degree in Organizational Leadership and studied International Relations and Political Science as one of the first African American at South Korea's Yonsei University. A proud Hampton University alumna with a BA in Communications and a graduate of New York University's Public Relations Institute, Jewel has also served as an Adjunct Instructor at Savannah Technical College and Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Jewel is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, the Association for Talent Development and the Human Resources Association of Jamaica (HRMAJ). She is a Stephen Minister who loves to read, travel, and paint. She enjoys mentoring young women and believes that her greatest gift is her daughter Jynnah, a social anthropologist.
