OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS
STUDENT DISABILITY RESOURCE CENTER

To Whom it May Concern,

It is my pleasure to recommend Lowcountry Academic Consulting, Courtney Lawrence, as a continuing vendor with SC Vocational Rehabilitation.

During our fall semester, the Student Disability Resource Center established a connection with Courtney through SCVR. Our students were offered six sessions total that covered relevant topics for academic success in their college courses, which included: time management, effective study habits, overcoming class absences, managing living at college, making the most of college disability services, and choosing the right major.

Courtney's professional manner and vast knowledge in how to support students has been invaluable. She includes tailoring her presentations in the moment for questions that our students have had. Additionally, her flexibility in her time for offering these sessions has allowed for less scheduling conflicts that could have potentially arose with class schedules, which increased the prospects of student attendance overall.

Should you have any questions, or wish to discuss Courtney's abilities in more detail, please do not hesitate to contact me either by phone [REDACTED] or by email [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
