From the East

Brethren,

I never know what to write when I sit down to do this. This time is different. With the onset of the Covid 19 virus everything has suddenly changed. There is a panic response and the grocery store shelves are empty for the most part. Bread, meat, dairy products and canned goods are, or seem to be gone. In preparation for the 3rd Saturday breakfast in March I found myself getting up at 4 am to stand in line at Walmart to get what we needed for that occasion. Still, even after going to 3 stores at opening time there was no bread or potatoes. I haven't been back to the stores yet, so I don't know if the panic buying is still ongoing.

My point in bringing this up is that I know we all need to be safe and feel prepared. That, apparently, means a lot of different things to a lot of different people. Taking common sense measures while erring on the safe side is my personal approach. I do not hoard at the grocery store. I buy as I would normally. If everyone used this approach, there would be no shortages. I wash my hands a lot and don't congregate in large groups (which is becoming more difficult anyway). So, stop a minute, take a deep breath, think about these things and apply common sense. In the meantime, you can catch up on all those home projects you have been putting off.

As of Wednesday, March 18th I received the following from M.W. Louis J. Castle, Grand Master of Masons in Nevada:

"I hereby order all Masonic Meetings in the State of Nevada closed between now and April 17 in compliance with Governor Sisolak's order to close all nonessential businesses for thirty days which specified meeting halls as nonessential."

Please keep in mind that as this situation remains fluid things are subject to change. I will do my best to keep all brothers of Pahrump Lodge 54 informed.

By the Square,

W.B. David Cook
Worshipful Master

From the West

Brethren,

Let us hope that the Grand Masters order to close the lodge to all activities ends on April 13 as anticipated. We were expecting a vote on a new brother and the possibility of a first degree in April, hopefully we will be able to do that in May. As most of you know Montezuma 30 relies heavily on Pahrump to help with MM degrees. We were looking at a 3rd degree on May 2 which is now not possible. If all restrictions go away, we will try for June 2. I will be contacting the degree team to see if we can put this together. Stay in number your TP sheets carefully and be safe.

On the Level,

W.B. Fred Beeman P.M.
Senior Warden

From the Secretary

Brethren,

I hope everyone is doing well and staying healthy. I will miss seeing you at the stated as it is always a great time. Please be safe and keep each other in your thoughts during these times. Hopefully we will be able to get back to lodge activities soon.

As always please check your dues card and make sure they are current. I'm sending out dues notices to those that are delinquent. Thanks to those that have responded to the delinquency committee already.

Possible District #11 DDGL Workshop on April 25th
Time TBD.

Fraternally,

W.B. Gregory F. Curtin P.M.
Secretary
