The image is a detailed black and white engraving of the Mexican Coat of Arms. At the center, an eagle with spread wings is perched on a prickly pear cactus, clutching a serpent in its talons. The scene is set against a backdrop of two snow-capped mountains, likely representing Popocatepetl and Iztaccíbar. The entire emblem is encircled by a wreath of oak and ahuehuete branches. Above the wreath, a banner curves across the top, bearing the text "Estados Unidos Mexicanos" in a stylized font. The engraving is signed "G. B. 1878" in the lower right corner.

WILLIAM ALONZO HYDE
PATRIARCH
POCATELLO STAKE

Pocatello, Idaho March 27, 1931

A blessing given by Patriarch William Alonzo Hyde upon the head of

Rachael Irene Quinn, daughter of James Alford Quinn and Elizabeth (Inglestrom) Quinn, born September 9, 1921, at Pocatello, Idaho.

* * * * *

Rachael Irene Quinn, it is a pleasure to bless thee and I pray that the Lord may indite this blessing so that it may be authoritative and binding and written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Thou art of the house and tribe of Ephraim and thou hast descended through a noble lineage, and as thou dost trace it back in future years thou shalt with pride discover that there are many noble names of people to whom thou art related.
And in a way that we at present do not understand these names will be given to thee and thou shalt have the privilege of doing work for them in the Temple of the Lord, and thou shalt do work for thyself. There thou shalt make covenants and shall have blessings pronounced upon thee of which we may not now speak. And these shall be the means of sealing thee up to eternal life.

Thou shalt be blessed with a husband, and thou and he shall prosper and thou shalt establish a home that shall be a pride to thee, and many people shall come in at your door and sit by your table and partake of your bounty and their hearts shall be glad because of thy generosity.

I seal thee up against the power of the Tempter.
He may coax and persuade but thou shalt always have the power within thee to say no, and he shall turn and flee from thee because thou dost stand firm in righteousness.

Generations after thee shall call thee blessed and thy name shall be remembered because of thy good works, and among the multitudes who come up before the throne of their Father to sing praises to Him thou shalt be found and thou shalt be glorified in the presence of the Father. Which I seal upon thee in the name of Jesus Christ.

Amen.

CALVIN DELOS MCOMBER

PATRIARCH

POCATELLO STAKE

Pocatello, Idaho February 11, 1940

A blessing given by Patriarch Calvin Delos McOmber upon the head of Woodrow Wilson Longhurst son of Warren Longhurst and Lavenia Moffett, born February 16, 1920, at Colonia Dublan, Chih. Mexico.

Brother Woodrow Wilson Longhurst, by virtue of the Priesthood I bear, I place my hands upon your head and give unto you a Patriarchal Blessing that may be a comfort and a guide and an encouragement to you throughout your life.

I bless you that you may have health and strength in your body, that your mind may be alert and quick to perceive truth and right, and that you will be able to discern evil and error and that the Spirit of the Lord will be with you to guide and direct your footsteps; that you may order your life's course in the way of righteousness and truth.
Seek wisdom and knowledge out of books and heed the words of those who teach the Gospel truths, that they may become a part of your life and that you will not be led away from the straight and narrow path by the teachings of men that are in error and are seeking to thwart the purposes of the Lord, but that you may be able to understand the principles of the Gospel and the doctrines thereof; that they may become a part of your life; that each day you may be guided and directed by your understanding and knowledge of the truth.

The Lord has granted a choice spirit to you and if you are humble He will guide and direct you in the proper course, that you will be able to fulfill your life's mission pleasing unto Him and to your own joy and happiness from righteous doing; that it will be a joy and a source of strength and power to you in all that you do. And I bless you that you may have wisdom, judgement, and understanding in your temporal affairs as well as your spiritual affairs; that you may be led and guided to do the things that shall be to your good and for the good of those who are dependant upon you; that when problems arise you shall have the proper understanding, that those problems may be overcome, that your attitude may be right and that in humility the Lord will bless and guide you through the various changes and scenes of your life.

And in as much as you expect soon to go to the Temple to receive of the blessings therein, I bless you that your mind may be keen and alert so that you may understand the Gospel truths that you will see and hear explained; that you may realize and appreciate your relationship to the Lord and His work; and that the beauties of the ordinances of His Holy House will be understood by you and that you will see and feel the importance of the work therein performed and that you will be led to appreciate the privilege you have of going into the House of the Lord and entering into the Holy bonds of matrimony in the proper way and that your heart will be filled with joy in realizing that the Lord has privileged you this great blessing, and that together with your companion, your home may be one of joy and harmony and love, that you may travel life's road together successfully and that in your home may come blessings to you that will fill your heart with joy and that you will appreciate the privilege of starting out in your life's course in such a blessed manner.

in your lives course in such a splendid manner.

I bless you that those spirits that our Father in Heaven may send to your home may be choice and that you may have wisdom and understanding in the performance of your duties and responsibilities in leading and directing them in their activities in life; and that as they develop into manhood and womanhood they may have a fervent and firm testimony of the truths of the Gospel; that they may bring honor and respect to your name and bring joy and happiness to your household, that through your teachings, word, and example, you may be a leader to them and to your associates here on earth.

Keep your life clean and pure in the sight of the Lord. Always uphold and sustain those who preside over you in the church, and through your testimony and sustaining, ^{efforts} the Lord will bless and strengthen you that your faith of the divinity of this work will be made manifest to you, that you will have a testimony that may be an encouragement to you and a stay throughout your life; and as each trial may come, your faith will not be wavered; that through your faith and humility He will strengthen you to rise above the things that may otherwise be a burden to you.

Lift your life onto the higher levels, and through faith and prayer live above the temptations of the evil power that you may enjoy a full life of the spirit of the Gospel so that the Lord will strengthen you and make you equal to your duties and responsibilities from day to day; and that as you journey through life, your faith and testimony will grow stronger and the Lord will manifest unto you His kindness and He will bless you abundantly with your companion and your children in your home, that it may be a place of righteousness and a sanctuary; that people entering into your home may rest in that spirit and rejoice in it with you.

And when you have finished your work on this life, you may receive your reward in Heaven, that you may rise higher and higher in the kingdom of the Lord, and to this end I bless you, in the name of Jesus Christ.

Amen.

GEORGE FIELD, Lawrenceville, Ill.—Second Lt. Woodrow Longhurst of Pocatello, Idaho, son of Warren Longhurst of Colonia Dublan, Chihuahua, Mexico, and husband of Mrs. Rachel Q. Longhurst, has arrived at George Field where he will receive specialized training in troop carrier command tactics.

This training with the C-46 transport airplane will emphasize preparation for glider towing, paratroop and parapack dropping troop carrier command formation flying.

Lieutenant Longhurst won his wings at Turner Field, Albany, Ga., June 27, 1945.

ARMY AIR FORCES EASTERN FLYING TRAINING COMMAND

ARMY AIR FORCES PRE-FLIGHT SCHOOL

Upon the recommendation of his Tactical Officer I do hereby appoint Aviation Cadet LONGHURST, W. W., a Lieutenant in the ARMY AIR FORCES PRE-FLIGHT SCHOOL to rank as such from the Twenty-fifth day of
