

Deep Dark Secrets

No one talks about
The things they're hiding
They leave no clues
No one talks about
A love they're faking
It's sad but true

Living with this pain inside me
Living with this urge
Deep dark secrets
Leave a mark inside me
The devil's scourge

I'm embarrassed 'bout
The things I'm hiding
I tell no one
I sedate myself
With things I borrow
I try to run

Living with my souls' disaster
Living with disgrace
Deep dark secrets
Like a mask I'm wearing
Never see my face

Bridge ****
Sometimes I don't see myself
The mirror lies

Sometimes I can't respect myself
For telling lies

Verse break**

Protecting everyone around me
Hiding from the crime
Deep dark secrets
I'm the tortured victim
Left alone to die

No one talks about
The world they live in
So dark and cold
No one talks about
Why they're escaping
The truth be told

Living with the sadness in me
I will never learn
Deep dark secrets
It's a taste of darkness
Point of no return

Dirty little secrets
Hiding my addictions
We're all the same
People talk about it
Draped in fiction
We have no shame
We have no shame
We have no shame
