

Live music is a huge part of our lives and it was important to us to have a band play our wedding to create a night our guests would never forget. We first saw Hunks and Punks play at a relative's wedding in 2018, and then again at Irene's in 2022 in Ottawa - we were blown away during both occasions!!

We contacted Tim from the band and right from the beginning exceeded all expectations. They were truly a pleasure to work with and helped make our special day perfect. Not only did the band play our cocktail hour and our reception, but Tim led the bridal party introductions, played dinner music and our first dance songs.

Tim went above and beyond to ensure that everything was planned and organized. The personalization offered by the band is second to none. Tim actively sought our input, he allowed us to create the entire night's setlist for the cocktail hour and reception. He also coordinated with the venue to ensure the setup and sound met their requirements. With so much on our plate in planning the wedding, he made the entire process so smooth for us.

During the cocktail hour, the band's performance was an absolute hit. The music they played had our guests on their feet dancing early on in the night. Since our MC was also part of our bridal party, Tim generously announced the entrance of the bridal party and coordinated perfectly with our choice of song. He then seamlessly transitioned between playing dinner music and pausing for speeches, ensuring the volume was appropriate at all times. He played the first dance songs, shortening them to our request.

Not only was the band super talented, but they are extremely professional. They dressed professionally and were super friendly with us, our venue's staff and the guests throughout the night. They created an unforgettable atmosphere for our special day. Tim even played our Spotify playlists during the band's short breaks. Our guests can't stop talking about how great they were.

I cannot speak highly enough of Hunks and Punks and their contribution to our wedding. Their talent, professionalism, and dedication to making our day perfect were unforgettable. I wholeheartedly recommend them for a wedding or any event, as they have the ability to transform any occasion into a memorable and joyful experience.

Thank you once again to Tim and the entire band for their outstanding performance and for making our wedding truly magical.

Sincerely,
