Dear future Hunks & Punks clients,

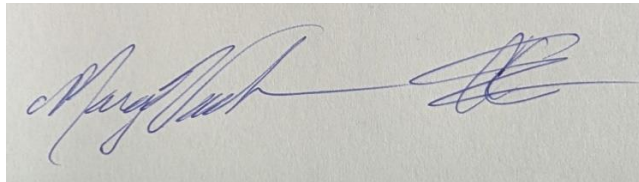

We first met Tim at an Ottawa Wedding show – his enthusiasm and passion for live music was infectious and immediately evident! Live music was on the top of our wish-list for our wedding, and we're happy to say that we booked the best band in Ottawa.

Tim was so easy to work with and made planning a breeze. For our wedding at the Grand Hotel in October 2024, we booked a musical trio for our ceremony and cocktail hour and a 7-piece band for our reception. Our guests continue to comment on how much fun they had at our wedding and loved the live music. Our dancefloor was full all night and you could tell the band members were enjoying sharing their talents as well.

The Hunks & Punks have a wide range of songs to choose from for every part of your wedding and they even learned two new songs for us for our father-daughter/mother-son dance as well as our first dance.

Still deciding if you should book a live band? Do it! The price point is great and it is way more fun than hiring a DJ who plays their spotify list all night.

Thanks again to everyone in the Hunks & Punks band who played at our wedding – it truly made a memorable day even more special.
