

Nuggets of Fun and Nostalgia for Treasure Valley Golden-Agers

Parable of the Train

At birth we boarded a train and met our parents. We believe they will always travel by our side. In the early days of our trip, we excitedly explore every nook and cranny of the train. Our parents are there to instruct us and model good behavior on the trip.

As time goes by, other people will board the train at different stops; they will be significant - our siblings, friends, children, strangers and even the love of your life. The journey on the train is greatly enriched by our fellow passengers. We will learn from them, laugh with them, and cry together. Many milestone events will be celebrated together along the way.

However, at some station on the trip our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone. Their impact on our trip will long be remembered. Other beloved passengers will step down over time and leave a permanent vacuum.

100 YEARS AGO

On January 2, 1921, Pittsburgh's KDKA-AM radio station made the first live broadcast of a church service, and the first remote broadcast using a telephone line to transmit the signal to the broadcasting transmitter, as it aired the Sunday services from Calvary Episcopal Church. The National Religious Broadcasters association would celebrate the anniversary half a century later by making "the first international religious broadcast to be transmitted live by satellite" on January 27, 1971.

For English language lovers

What is the difference between “Completed” and “Finished?”

No dictionary has been able to define the difference between “complete” and “finished.”

But at a linguistic conference in England, Sun Sherman, an American Indian, was the clever winner.

His response: “When you marry the right woman, you are ‘complete.’

“If you marry the wrong woman, you are ‘finished.’

“And when the right woman catches you with the wrong woman, you are ‘completely finished!’”

His answer received a five minute standing ovation.

Parable of the Train (Continued from page 1)

Some, however, will go so unnoticed that we don't realize they vacated their seats. This train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells. Success consists of developing and maintaining a good relationship with all passengers. It requires that we give the best of ourselves.

The mystery to everyone on the journey is this: we do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. So, we must live in the best way, love, forgive, and offer the best of who we are. It is important to do this because when the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty, we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on the train of life.

I wish you a joyful journey for the coming years on your train of life. Reap success, give lots of love and be happy. More importantly, thank God for the journey! And don't forget – when you disembark, you will leave all of your luggage behind.

Lastly, I want to thank you for being one of the passengers on my train! I wouldn't want to have made this trip without you!

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MEN AND WOMEN

FUTURE

- A woman worries about the future until she gets a husband.
- A man never worries about the future until he gets a wife.

MARRIAGE

- A woman marries a man expecting he will change, but he doesn't.
- A man marries a woman expecting that she won't change, but she does.

MONEY

- A man will pay $2 for a $1 item he needs.
- A woman will pay $1 for a $2 item that she doesn't need but it's on sale.

BATHROOMS

- A man has six items in his bathroom: toothbrush and toothpaste, shaving cream, razor, a bar of soap, and a towel.
- The average number of items in the typical woman's bathroom is 337. A man would not be able to identify more than 20 of these.

ARGUMENTS

- A woman has the last word in any argument.
- Anything a man says after that is the beginning of a new argument

DRESSING UP

- A woman will dress up to go shopping, water the plants, empty the trash, answer the phone, read a book, and get the mail.
- A man will dress up for weddings and funerals.

OFFSPRING

- Ah, children. A woman knows all about her children. She knows about dentist appointments and romances, best friends, favorite foods, secret fears and hopes and dreams.
- A man is vaguely aware of some short people living in the house.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

A married man should forget his mistakes.
There's no use in two people remembering the same thing!

Write it Down!

An elderly couple started to forget things, so they decided to go to the doctor for a checkup. The doctor said everything was fine and they should think about writing things down.

After they got home and were watching TV, the husband got up and his wife asked, "Where are you going?"

"To the kitchen," he said.

She asked him to get her a bowl of ice cream.

"OK," he said.

She said to him, "Maybe you should write it down so you don't forget."

He said, "I can remember that you want a bowl of ice cream."

She said, "Oh, and put strawberries on it!"

"OK," he said.

She said, "You should write it down so you don't forget!"

He huffed and said, "I can remember that you want ice cream with strawberries!"

He went to the kitchen and after 20 minutes returned and handed her a plate of bacon and eggs.

She looked at the plate - and then him - and said, "You forgot my toast!"

Copy That!

A young executive was leaving the office one evening when he found the CEO standing in front of a shredder with a piece of paper in his hand.

"Listen," said the CEO, "this is important and my assistant has left. Can you make this thing work?"

"Certainly", said the young man, flattered that the CEO had asked him for help.

He turned the machine on, inserted the paper and pressed the start button.

"Excellent!" said the CEO as his paper disappeared inside the machine. "I just need two copies of that."

Oh, My Heart!

A girl was having a heart transplant. Before her surgery she told her boyfriend, "I love you!"

"I love you, too," he replied.

When she woke up from surgery, she saw only her father next to her bed. "Where is he?" she asked.

The father responded, "You don't know who gave you the heart?" The girl began to cry.

"I'm just kidding," the father said. "He went to the bathroom!"

Then there was the man who was caught shoplifting a 2021
calendar.
He got 12 months.

SHE SAID, HE SAID

FROM HER DIARY, WHAT SHE WAS THINKING:

Tonight, I thought my husband was acting weird. We had made plans to meet at a nice restaurant for dinner. I was shopping with my friends all day long, so I thought he was upset at the fact that I was a bit late, but he made no comment on it.

Conversation wasn't flowing, so I suggested that we go somewhere quiet so we could talk. He agreed, but he didn't say much.

I asked him what was wrong; He said, "Nothing."

I asked him if it was my fault that he was upset. He said he wasn't upset, that it had nothing to do with me, and not to worry about it.

On the way home, I told him that I loved him. He smiled slightly and kept driving. I can't explain his behavior. I don't know why he didn't say, "I love you, too."

When we got home, I felt as if I had lost him completely, as if he wanted nothing to do with me anymore. He just sat there quietly and watched TV. He continued to seem distant and absent.

Finally, with silence all around us, I decided to go to bed. About 15 minutes later, he came to bed.

But I still felt that he was distracted, and his thoughts were somewhere else. He fell asleep - I cried. I don't know what to do. I'm almost sure that his thoughts are with someone else. My life is a disaster.

WHAT HE WAS THINKING:

Boat motor wouldn't start,
can't figure out why.

If GH can stand for P as in "hiccough,"
If OUGH can stand for O as in "dough,"
If PHTH can stand for T as in "phthisis."
If EIGH can stand for A as in "neighbor,"
If TTE can stand for T as in "gazette,"
If EAU can stand for O as in "plateau,"
Then the correct way to spell POTATO is GHOUGHPTHTEIGHTTEAU!
