Deposit agreement for Tattoo

When you make your appointment you have reserved the very highest quality technician and facility possible. We do not overbook or double book, you will have a personal appointment just for you. In order to provide this quality attention to our clients, we need to have clear communication regarding any change to your exclusive appointment time. A deposit of half of the procedure will be required in order to reserve your appointment through Cash, Venmo, Paypal, Bank Transfer, Credit Card; the full balance is due on the day of procedure. In case of any cancellations or changes the deposit is nonrefundable and will be kept as form of insurance by New Reflections.
