What is Dancakes?

Dancakes is the first name in Professional Pancake Art. Their talented and charismatic artists create portraits and designs out of 100% edible pancake batter for events around the world, bringing joy and laughter wherever they go. They craft video content for brands and private clients that regularly attracts millions of views on social media. Their product line and a video series is geared towards sharing this fun and delicious art medium with the world. If you want exceptional pancake art crafted by exceptional people, accept no substitutes. We'll coordinate all the details and combine this experience into your party or event.
