

LegISLATION

Three bills introduced to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment.

FORUM

ERA Forum at the Capitol included speakers from government, business, religious organizations, the military and citizen activist speakers.

MARCH

Attended Women's March, which, in its third year, still attracts thousands of people, bringing awareness to women's issues.

awareNESS

The ERA Task Force AZ, along with other groups, signed up for dozens of events to table at, or speak at, to bring awareness of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA).

SUPPORT

One Republican legislator said he received 1000 to one calls and emails in support of ratification of the ERA.

Year in Review

ERA Task Force AZ January to June 2019

The ERA Task Force AZ doubled the number of supporters and tripled social media followers, including clergy, businesses, legal organizations, and other advocates for equality in our state.

SiLent SeNTiNels

Silent Sentinels stood at the State Capital between the House and Senate nearly every day of the session wearing a sash and/or carrying banners advocating ratification of the ERA.

LOBBYiNg

The task force representatives met one on one with legislators to educate and gain legislative support.

Media

Wrote Letters to the Editors or an OpED. The ERA Task Force AZ gained primetime news coverage, radio show and news interviews.

38 Miles

Received national news coverage for the 38 Mile March for Arizona to become the 38th and pivotal state to ratify the ERA.

essay CONTEST

The ERA Task Force AZ held a statewide scholarship essay contest for all JROTC high schoolers. Kayla Youman, from Sierra Vista, was awarded $500.

deBate

Several times during this year, brave legislators from each chamber, championed ratification of the ERA, on the floor.

erataskforceaz.com