MAKING WAVES—WOMEN IN RURAL WATER

Attention Women in Water and Wastewater: You are Invited!

Join us again for the Making Waves—Women in Rural Water luncheon on Monday, August 12 from 10:30 a.m.—12:00 p.m. Making Waves is dedicated to supporting, promoting, and inspiring women throughout the water and wastewater industry. The purpose of the luncheon is to connect women in rural water, encouraging professionals to meet and share ideas, and develop important relationships.

*“A woman is like a tea bag—you can’t tell how strong she is until you put her in hot water.”
- Eleanor Roosevelt*

To attend the event, you must have a full registration or a Monday single day registration. The event is limited to the first 70 registrants. Each attendee will receive a complimentary t-shirt—shirt sizes are guaranteed for those who register on or before July 18. Please note: registration for this event will be your Monday lunch ticket.
