

2024 Publishing by Women Membership Information

The Mission

Publishing by Women website was created by Sheri Hauser, owner of Glorybound Publishing, to provide a way for those offering services to connect with those who need them. Sheri has published books since 2005 and has excelled in website development, social media, and marketing. Combining these elements provides a unique opportunity to offer an inexpensive platform for those with quality services to display them in a marketplace for sale.

Bad Books Going Nowhere

The publishing industry is divided into sectors. Many are going through conventional editing standards only to hit a wall regarding publishing because many traditional publishers have gone out of business. With no other option, authors and publishers are working through the process of publishing their books on KDP. Through KDP, they can upload files for free with print-on-demand options. KDP touts the process as easy, but authors are often quickly discouraged from discovering how complex the process is. Ideally, books must be compiled in pagination software before uploading to the printer. This involves learning software. It takes more than uploading files to a server to make a quality book. Consequently, many books are 'partially' uploaded to KDP and fall short of author expectations.

Then, to cause further discouragement, authors are releasing their books on KDP [through Amazon] and discovering the title is quickly lost in the millions of new and used books on the website. They are becoming discouraged and wondering what to do next. They think, "I know someone out there will be happy by reading my book, but I don't have what it takes to get it into the main marketplace."

This is where Publishing by Women can be helpful. Many small businesses are sprouting up that fill the learning gap between having the manuscript and getting it published. Our goal is to connect the services to the authors.

This website is specific to women offering services for publishing books in the United States. We do not take money on the website (for services) but offer links to sales. We take no commission from sales of the individuals posting services on the website and do not moderate the prices posted. However, to register, a service individual must fill out the price sheet [which becomes shown to shoppers] and inform us of any changes to the prices. Prices may change quarterly. Suppose a consumer reports that the service person has misrepresented her price or charged a price other than what is shown. In that case, the individual will lose their membership. If a customer files a complaint, the service individual can contest the complaint. It will be evaluated.

If she has one, publishing by Women links to the service provider's email and website. We will confirm links before linking to the website. Links that may be attached include books for sale, personal websites, email addresses, videos, or audiobooks. Please ensure that the links provided are valid. The integrity of the website is essential. All links will be checked randomly. Invalid linked titles will be paused until a valid link is provided. Let us know if your link changes.

The webmaster selects the placement of the services provided. As the website expands, she may move to accommodate others joining us.
