What else is going on?

There will be three õgroups of carolersõ walking around the Island and singing holiday songs by the bridges.

Most of the homes in Naples have been decorated for the holidays in accompaniment of the Boat Parade theme. (we have a local competition for best decorated house).

The Naples Island Business Association has many of the restaurants and businesses open and decorated for the holidays. (we give out awards for them too!)

Extra police and private security have been hired for the event to help ensure security and crowd control for the Island. The police will be closing the Island to vehicle access as they deem necessary.

Please come and enjoy safely...
