

Cristina Jantz

Founder/CEO of Tidbit Editing

tidbitediting@gmail.com

Professional Summary:

I'm a 2020 graduate of Goshen College with degrees in Writing and Theatre. I've been adept at noticing -- and fixing -- typos for years. I tackle projects with kindness, decorum, humor, and the utmost respect for the art of writing. I'll help you polish your work into the best version of itself.

Core Qualifications:

- Education: Goshen College '20, degrees in Writing and Theatre
Proofread Anywhere's course "General Proofreading: Theory & Practice"
- Specific Proofreading Guide: AP, but I'm flexible in terms of style.
- Specialties: Books/novels, fiction writing, the arts
- I have a knack for...noticing the tiniest errors. Paying attention to detail is my #1 editing trait.
- Language Fluency: Native fluent U.S. English speaker

Professional Experience:

- Copy Editor/Reporter for Goshen College's student-run newspaper, The Record
September 2016 - March 2020
2019 article, "You Should Know: Digital Eve," published in the Goshen News
- Board Member for BroadSides, Pinchpenny Press, and Red Cents
2017 - 2020
Student-run publication boards at Goshen College
Collaborated with editorial teams to select and edit submissions for publication