

Summer Art Camps 2020

FrameArt Studio

150 Silliman St, San Francisco, 94134

In our Kids' Summer Art Camps we explore a variety of different art media while teaching technical skills in drawing, painting, printmaking, clay, and collage. Lisa inspires creativity and motivates students with her unique teaching methods where students are encouraged to think through and develop their own style. Motivation and ideas come from Art History, nature, individual experiences, image library, and of course, imagination.

All classes are taught by Lisa Magruder, MFA in Printmaking and Painting, a local artist who has over 25 years' experience in art education. Lisa also taught Art History at a local collage and has exhibited her work both locally and nationally. Camps assisted by Brandi Ynocencio, BFA in Printmaking and Painting, a local artist, model, and performs in local theater productions.

You may sign up for morning, afternoon, or full-day sessions.

Weekly Camps cost $185 for half day and $350 for full day, per week.

Sign up for two or more weeks and save 10%. Sibling Discount 10% per week.
