What to do with your appliances when no longer wanted/needed?

Please call Weikert Iron & Metal 1-877-934-5378 to make an appointment. They'll take 4 appliances a year and up to 10 tires a year per household. This service is sponsored by RICWMA.

What should you do with your old electronics?

Old and non-functioning electronic materials, also known as e-waste, can be recycled through a special program at the Waste Commission of Scott County (<https://www.wastecom.com>). Rock Island County residents are able to participate in the program through a partnership between RICWMA and the Waste Commission. RICWMA covers the recycling costs for RI County residents. There is no fees and NO appointment is needed. Located at: 5650 Cary Avenue, Davenport, IA (563)823-0119. Open 8:00 a.m. to noon year round the 1st Saturday for every month.

TRICK OR TREAT WILL BE ON OCTOBER 31, 2023

HOURS: 5 PM – 7 PM

PLEASE BE CAREFUL AND WATCH OUT FOR THE LITTLE GOBLINS
