

To love and Be loved

I'm attracted to women
But deep down a big part of me knows I belong with a man
That I will be fully healed and whole again with the love of a good man
Though I have been hurt and broken by men at a young age
And the possibility of pain by the hands of man will never cease
I know I can love a man
Because I have the strength to love anything or anyone

As long as the heart beats
And there is a will to live
Man can do anything

As long as the heart beats
And there is a will to live
Woman can do anything

From my past days and to the present
I have learned how to read people
Without speaking any words
Someone with gifts beyond human comprehension
I choose to not give myself a title
Because i am still a human
Just like you

I have felt glory, my power in different forms
Pain that hurt three ways
All at once
Hurt that dwelled beyond its intended stay
But I didn't have the strength to tell it to leave so I left

Love given back to me in ways I never expected
The realization of a cold heart versus a heart that is endangered of shrinking
You can't chisel at an ice wall with a toothpick
But you can grow a heart from a seedling

I know love more than anything
I can show you what I know
But only in pieces
Because real love takes time
Real love takes trust
It is loyalty that surpasses society norms
Real love is to die for, I can't live without you,

I sacrifice, I compromise
I do whatever possible to make sure You're taken care of

Then I have to take care of myself too
Because how else can I love you if I don't love myself
This goes both ways

We've been hurt before
There will be baggage
The kind you wish would get lost
But it finds us again
Even years later when you thought it was forgotten

That beat up suitcase with postage from different time stamps and places
Your heart sinks into your stomach
Where did this come from?
Why now?

Our past mistakes come back around
It time to face ourselves
And peel the layers
Reveal our humanity in a naturalistic way
Touch upon what is real
Human connection
At the right time
Right place
With the intended people

I'm in it for the long haul even if we're not together
I understand, you understand
We both have destinations to get to
I hope to see you at the end
My future love
I'll see you soon
