- members, including life members;
- persons appointed or elected to BRCC committees and sub-committees;
- coaches and assistant coaches;
- Team managers, Team scorers;
- BRCC umpires and other officials;
- BRCC parents, family members and spectators; and
- Cricket Albury Wodonga affiliated clubs.

Policy breaches

Breaches of this policy include but are not limited to:

- Using BRCC's name, motto, crest and/or logo in a way that would result in a negative impact for the club and/or its members.
- Posting or sharing any content that is abusive, harassing, threatening, demeaning, defamatory or libellous.
- Posting or sharing any content that includes insulting, obscene, offensive, provocative or hateful language.
- Posting or sharing any content, which if said in person during the playing of the game would result in a breach of the Rules of the Game.
- Posting or sharing any content in breach of anti-discrimination, racial discrimination, sexual harassment or other similar policy.
- Posting or sharing any content that is a breach of any State or Commonwealth law.
- Posting or sharing any material to our social media channels that infringes the intellectual property rights of others.
- Posting or sharing material that brings, or risks bringing BRCC, its affiliates, its sport, its officials, members or sponsors into disrepute. In this context, bringing a person or organisation into disrepute is to lower the reputation of that person or organisation in the eyes of the ordinary members of the public.

Reporting a breach

If you notice inappropriate or unlawful content online relating to Baranduda Rangers Cricket Club or any of its members, or content that may otherwise have been published in breach of this policy, you should report the circumstances immediately to: Mitchell Ryan (Club President).

Disciplinary process, consequences and appeals

Depending on the circumstances breaches of this policy may be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary procedure contained in the BRCC's Member Code of Conduct.

Members of Baranduda Rangers Cricket Club who breach this policy may face disciplinary action up to and including termination of their membership in accordance with BRCC Member Code of Conduct or any other relevant policy.

Where it is considered necessary, BRCC may report a breach of this social media policy to police.
