

Black Butterflies THE EMERGENCE

Sun Nov 23 3pm

Rosemont High School
Performing Arts Center
9594 Kiefer Boulevard
Sacramento, CA 95827

Sequel to the stage play Black Butterflies "The Metamorphosis," BB The Emergence was developed and written to impart information about the significance of people of color in God's redemptive plan for mankind, beginning with the book of Genesis (the beginning).

Aimed at the entire family structure, the stage play is filled with educational and musically charged scenes, designed to inspire hope and motivate pursuit of personal destiny. The stage play targets families of color yet educates all and embraces cultural diversity and collaboration.

An "awareness" to history that has been hidden.

A "metamorphosis" into God's plan and His purpose for their lives.

An "emergence" into purpose and destiny.

Tickets on sale now!

