

South MS Intergroup June Newsletter

South MS Intergroup serves Harrison, Hancock, Stone, George, Jackson, and Pearl River Counties. Our mission is to be the place people trying to find AA can call or visit and to also support the AA community in these counties by providing resources, helping to organize events, and fostering connections among individuals committed to sobriety.

You can participate in the International Convention Virtually

Unable to attend the 2025 international convention in person? There are options for you to participate! Register for a Virtual Session Program Track.

This is a two-day 8 session virtual program track for individual viewing at home. The sessions will be live-streamed as they take place and will not be available for purchase after the Convention. The cost is $35 (USD).
