Dr. Frances Ann Reid
Founder/Director
franwilliams1011@yahoo.com

The Reverend Dr. Frances A. Reid is a native of Wilson, North Carolina. Dr. Reid was married for 25 years and is the widow of the late Rev. Clifton E. Murray. To that union was born one daughter, Mrs. Kameeka Murray-Graves. Also blessed to be a part of their family is Ms. Linda Faye Foster.

Dr. Reid received her Master of Divinity Degree from the Hood Theological Seminary, Salisbury, NC, and her Doctoral Degree from Palmer Theological Seminary, Wynnewood, PA.

Dr. Reid has served 54 years in ministry. Thirty-three of those years were served as an active pastor in Zion. Dr. Reid is an ordained Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

In May 1998, Dr. Reid was appointed Pastor of the Historic Clinton Memorial AME Zion Church, Newark, NJ. She bears the distinct honor of being the first female in Zion (her denomination) to be appointed to a major pulpit.

In August 2009, Dr. Reid was appointed to Pastor the Leake Temple AME Zion Church, Anchorage, AK. She also bears the distinct honor of being the first female appointed to this pulpit and the second pastor to serve this church in its history, following the late Reverend Dr. Theodore A. Moore, Founder.

In March 2013, Dr. Reid was appointed to serve on the Administrative Board of Appeals, representing the Western Episcopal District of which the Alaska Conference is a part.

In August 2017, Dr. Reid became the widower to the late Mr. E. Marion Reid Jr., and may he rest in peace.

In September 2019, Dr. Reid became the author of "Overcoming Addictions: A Guide to Restoring Addiction-Damaged Relationships." Her book is on Amazon.com.

Dr. Reid is heavily involved in community ministry. She is the founder of "Lectures for The Living Institute," "Where Are You Now? Retreat Conference" and "My Helping Hands Corp." These teaching ministries encourage right relationship & intimacy with God by fostering 'renewal & transformation.' These ministries also empower the lives of men and women as they journey towards the kingdom.

Dr. Reid has traveled extensively throughout North & South America, preaching, teaching, and lecturing. To name a few, Barbados, Guyana, Trinidad, Haiti, and Kenya.

Dr. Reid is an excellent empowering retreat facilitator. She conducts "Revivals and Empowering workshops. She is a sought-after preacher.

Dr. Douglas A. Slaughter
Founder & President,
Reach The World Ministries
Leadership Consultant | Ministry Strategist
Global Missions Advocate

Dr. Douglas A. Slaughter is a visionary pastor, leadership consultant, and international ministry strategist with over four decades of transformative service in faith-based leadership, education, and community development. In 1997, he founded Reach The World Ministries with a bold mission: to equip leaders, empower communities, and extend the reach of the Gospel across cultures and continents.

Under his direction, Reach The World has launched youth leadership programs, developed character-based curricula for teens, and led global mission efforts in places like Zimbabwe and the Democratic Republic of Congo. Dr. Slaughter has also provided faculty training at the Bilingual Christian University of the Congo (UCBC), supporting the next generation of Christian educators and faith leaders in Africa.

Prior to leading Reach The World full time, Dr. Slaughter served for 30 years as Senior Pastor of Second Baptist Church in Aiken, South Carolina, where he established a Christian preparatory school and launched Project Excel, a youth initiative that impacted over 300 students through mentorship and academic support. As Chair of the church's Community Development Corporation, he also oversaw the construction of more than 100 affordable homes and senior duplexes, advancing housing equity and economic opportunity throughout the region.

Dr. Slaughter holds a Doctorate in Organizational Management and Leadership from the University of Phoenix, with advanced degrees from Morehouse School of Religion and the College of William & Mary. He is a certified coach and speaker through the John C. Maxwell Team and has completed leadership training at Harvard Divinity School and Furman University.

Today, Dr. Slaughter continues to pour his energy into training leaders, consulting with ministries, and expanding the global impact of Reach The World Ministries. His life's work is rooted in the belief that strong, spiritually grounded leadership can transform lives and communities across the world.

Biography
Evangelist Stacie L. Daniels

Evangelist Stacie L. Daniels is a native of Columbus, Ohio. She was saved at an early age and has been active in the church since the age of four. She accepted the call into the ministry at the age of nineteen. She was later licensed as an Evangelist in 2003. Evangelist Daniels has served her local church for over 30 years in various capacities including youth ministry, women's ministry, and the music department.

Evangelist Daniels chose to advance her education at the Ohio State University where she received a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing and minored in Sociology. She later received a nursing teaching certification through the State of Ohio. In addition, she graduated from Ohio Dominican University with an MBA degree (specialization in Healthcare Administration). Evangelist Daniels has earned numerous academic awards as well as commendations. She was nominated twice and awarded the 2022-2023 recipient of the Zonta Club of Columbus Scholarship, one of the largest women's service organizations in the world dedicated to empowering women. Further, she was nominated and selected for induction into the National Society for Leadership and Success (NSLS). She has served as a mentor for the Columbus Public School District, The Ohio State University, and spiritual mentor to women and youth. She currently is an RN Trainer for Developmental Disability personnel that are pursuing the state of Ohio Medication Administration certification. She enjoys writing and is a noted writer for Transform You Publications. She was also selected to be a content writer for the educational platform, Learn & Earn, targeted at the teenage and young adult population.

Evangelist Daniels attends Praise Temple COGIC under the leadership of Pastor Mira L. Daniels. She served as Chairlady and Youth Department President for Ohio Central and the Ohio Central East Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, respectively, for 19 years combined. She has ministered in countless settings and various platforms including special services, revivals, youth conferences, and juvenile prison outreach. She is the youngest of four children, born to the union of Mira and Guessella Daniels. She has one daughter, Chasity.
