

Arise and Shine House
of Prayer
Church Magumu

Bishop Joshua K. Mbugua
& Pastor Faith
Host

If you desire to journey with us to Kenya contact:
Rev. Dr. Frances Ann Reid 907-301-3355
contact@myhelpinghandcorporation.com

Arise & Shine House of Prayer Church

Where are you now
Retreat
Conference

2 Kings 20:1-6

February 21-23 & 25

Dr. Frances Ann Reid's Bio
PO BOX 141764 Anchorage, AK
(907) 301.3355
franwilliams1011@yahoo.com

The Reverend Dr. Frances A. Reid is a native of Wilson, North Carolina. Dr. Reid was married for 25 years and is the widow of the late Rev. Clifton E. Murray. To that union was born one daughter, Mrs. Kameaka Murray-Graves. Also blessed to be a part of their family is Ms. Linda Faye Foster.

Dr. Reid received her Master of Divinity Degree from the Hood Theological Seminary, Salisbury, NC, and her Doctoral Degree from Palmer Theological Seminary, Wynnwood, PA.

Dr. Reid has served 54 years in ministry. Thirty-three of those years were served as an active pastor in Zion. Dr. Reid is an ordained Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

In May 1998, Dr. Reid was appointed Pastor of the Historic Clinton Memorial AME Zion Church, Newark, NJ. She bears the distinct honor of being the first female in Zion (her denomination) to be appointed to a major pulpit.

In August 2009, Dr. Reid was appointed to Pastor the Leake Temple AME Zion Church, Anchorage, AK. She also bears the distinct honor of being the first female appointed to this pulpit and the second pastor to serve this church in its history, following the late Reverend Dr. Theodore A. Moore, Founder.

In March 2013, Dr. Reid was appointed to serve on the Administrative Board of Appeals, representing the Western Episcopal District of which the Alaska Conference is a part.

In August 2017, Dr. Reid became the widow to the late Mr. E. Marion Reid Jr., and may he rest in peace.

In September 2019, Dr. Reid became the author of "Overcoming Addictions: A Guide to Restoring Addiction-Damaged Relationships." Her book is on Amazon.com.

Dr. Reid is heavily involved in community ministry. She is the founder of "Lectures for The Living Institute," "Where Are You Now? Retreat Conference" and "My Helping Hands Corp." These teaching ministries encourage right relationship & intimacy with God by fostering 'renewal & transformation.' These ministries also empower the lives of men and women as they journey towards the kingdom.

Dr. Reid has traveled extensively throughout North & South America, preaching, teaching, and lecturing. To name a few, Barbados, Guyana, Trinidad, Haiti, and Kenya.

Dr. Reid is an excellent empowering retreat facilitator. She conducts "Revivals and Empowering workshops. She is a sought-after preacher.

Bishop Carlton Williams

Bishop Carlton L. Williams was born and raised in Wilson, North Carolina, where he received his preparatory education. His post-secondary education studies include Livingstone College, Salisbury, North Carolina. Bishop is currently a student in the Master of Divinity program with a concentration in Pastoral Care at Virginia Union University (Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theological).

Bishop Williams's sensitivity to God and passion for ministry caused him to embrace his Kingdom Assignment. Bishop Williams was ordained a Deacon in 1991 and an Elder in 1994 in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

In 2012, Bishop Williams answered God's call to go to Roanoke Rapids, NC, and Church Plant Roanoke Family Community Church. In 2015, Bishop Williams and the Roanoke Family Community Church answered the Call of God to walk alongside Pastor Jaquarrence Knight in Church Planting.

In 2016, Bishop Carlton L. Williams was consecrated to the Order of the Episcopacy in the Lord's Church. He was chairperson of the Presbyter Council for the Life Changing Ministries International Fellowship.

In 2017, on the first Sunday of January, Bishop Williams and the Roanoke Family Community Church launched their second church plant in Roanoke Rapids, NC, a Spanish-speaking ministry led by Pastor Ciro Tapia. In June of that same year, 2017, The Roanoke Family Community Church, pastored by Bishop Williams, answered God's call to walk alongside Pastor Jermaine Williams in Church Planting Greater Praise Outreach Ministries.

In 2019, Bishop Williams reunited with his home church, Truth Tabernacle Ministries. He joined the Mount Calvary Holy Church of America (MCHCA), where he proudly serves as an MCHCA College of Bishops member. Bishop Williams currently assists Senior Pastor Shirley Caesar, founding pastor of the Mount Calvary Word of Faith Church in Raliegh, NC.

Bishop Williams is a gifted teacher/preacher who provides Leadership Training and Spiritual Guidance to many throughout the Body of Christ, nationally and internationally.

"Leaders are born; Leadership is developed; Knowing where to Lead is Key."

~Carlton L. Williams

Rev. Alsey Williams

Rev. Alsey T. Williams is a native North Carolinian where he graduated from the Wilson County School System. After high school Rev. Williams served his country as a Signal Soldier in the United States Army. It was during his first tour of duty that he received his call to ministry. He soon married Michelle Staton and began a family while seeking Gods will for his life and ministry.

Rev. Williams has pastored for 25+ years. On April 7th 2013 Rev. Williams began services at the John Thomas building on 3rd Avenue and established the Empowerment Temple A.M.E. Zion Church. God has since blessed Empowerment Temple to grow both spiritually and, numerically. They currently worship at the Arc of Anchorage 2211 Arca Drive, Anchorage, Alaska 99504 each Sunday at 11:00 AM. They also air a weekly television show on KYES Channel 5 called the Empower Hour from 9:30 to 10 a.m.

On August 20, 2017 Rev. Williams was elevated to the servant leadership office of the Presiding Elder of the Alaska/Fairbanks District of the Alaska Annual Conference by Bishop Staccato Powell.

In his downtime, Rev. Williams enjoys golfing and spending time with his family. Rev. Williams is committed to an obedient and God-ordained lifestyle and ministry. I present to some and introduce to others: