Howdy all!

Trying to keep it light as I know we are all discouraged about the continued lack of snow. Hurting the mountain, staff...and us. We must hold faith that it WILL come! NOAA says some snow this weekend. When Mark and I drove home from dinner last night, everything was covered in a thin layer of snow. Gave us hope! 🙌🙌

Tomorrow (Wed) is our 3rd gathering of our club...but with conditions as they are, and predicting a low turnout, we won't be offering snacks. Darn darn darn!!
We will save the treats for when we are back together in full force...next week!!!

Gift card raffle - One of our team will be at the PT table 8:30-9:30am for your chance at one of 20 Mt Spo gift cards valued at $12 each. Be sure to stop by!!!

Thursday is Lookout and Friday some are skiing Silver. Sure hope to see many of you up there.

Enjoy your week! Look forward to seeing you on the slopes sometime!!
