To RSVP:

For Satsangs, Retreats and Events you can RSVP to Yantra-ji in person, via phone or text message, using the online contact form, or via email yantra@livingalignment.com

While an RSVP on the day is sufficient for a weekly Satsang, please give a full week RSVP for attending a Retreat or Event, as this is for numbers and to avoid disappointment through needing to cancel at short notice.

When you RSVP to attend any Satsang, Retreat, or Event you are acknowledging you have read and agree to the fee schedule, rescheduling and cancellation policy guidelines set out on page 2.

To Make a Payment:

Via PayPal - Please use the online PayPal payment link (for PayPal, debit and credit card payments) which is listed with each of the events in the events schedule or the PayPal payment button at the bottom of the Events Page, or directly via PayPal - paypal.me/yantraji

Via Direct Deposit - To pay via Direct Deposit for Meetings, Events, Private Consultations or Journey Therapy appointments, please pay via direct deposit to: Yantra London - BSB 062205 - A/C 10301780
A Taxation receipt can be supplied on request.

Rescheduling and Cancellation Fees:

Yantra-ji has many commitments and makes it a priority to schedule in appointments around these to support beloveds. While unforeseen things occur that require a need to reschedule, if this occurs at short notice, this time and support is unable to be given to anyone else.

When booking an Appointment with Yantra-ji, or giving a RSVP to any Satsang, Retreat, or Event you are acknowledging you have read and agree to the fee schedule, rescheduling and cancellation policy guidelines set out in this document.

All prebooked packages are to be used within the Calendar month(s) of booking; a monthly package is to be used within the one calendar month of booking, a 3 month package to be used within the 3 calendar months of booking, a 6 month package to be used within the 6 calendar months of booking.

Financial Support:

Yantra-ji offers support and assistance for those in need who have a heart's calling to attend her Satsangs, Events, Retreats, Individual Consultations and Journey Sessions, please contact to discuss your situation, as some discounts and partial scholarships are made available by discretion.

An Opportunity for Ongoing Contribution:

Your personal journey of deepening discovery and Self-Inquiry is supported in many ways.

There is a suggested contribution for Satsang, Consultations and Retreats – please see the Fees Schedule. Some beloveds like to and are able to offer and contribute more generously, whilst others seek assistance to attend.

Over the years we have supported many beloveds experiencing financial hardship through the offering of partial scholarships, so those who really are called are able to attend. We would love for this to continue, if you feel called, any offer of ongoing financial assistance through a monthly or yearly contribution to the ongoing offering of Satsang, is warmly welcomed.

Yantra-ji also makes herself available for ongoing support for you at any time. Sometimes a brief chat on the phone may become a Self -Inquiry session or unplanned Satsang consultation, when this occurs, please do honour this offering to you, by offering a financial contribution in return. This way support can continue to be offered to you at all times through the Weekly Meetings, Weekend Retreats, Women's retreats, Journey Therapy sessions and Personal Consultations either in person, via Zoom or on the phone.

We would like to continue to offer new Satsang books that are being written, edited and published, as well as offering to make the recordings of Satsangs and retreats available, both for those of you who actively attend meetings and to the wider community. To enable this to continue, your generosity and ongoing contribution of time, assistance and financial support is invaluable.

In deepest gratitude — Yantra-ji ♥
