

2019 NPCA and Teton County Sheriff's Office K9 Training

The Teton County Sheriff's Office K9 Unit and the National Police Canine Association will be hosting the 17th annual NPCA K-9 narcotics, patrol, tracking, and bomb seminar and certification.

The K9 training seminar and certification is a three-and-a-half-day seminar that includes 24 hours of POST credit. The dates are May 7-10, 2019 (Tuesday thru Friday), in Jackson, Wyoming. The cost for the K9 seminar is $220.00. Registration for the K9 training and certification can be paid on or before May 07, 2019.

Additionally, on Monday May 06, 2019 Ted Daus will present a Legal Update class covering K9 Detection. The cost for the Legal Update class is $180.00 and is separate from the K9 seminar.

If you are interested in attending the Legal Update class we require that you register and pay the $180. registration fee by March 01, 2019. We will require that a minimum of 20 people register and pay the registration fee on or before March 01, 2019

A Decoy/Helpers pre seminar will be offered on May 05, Sunday, for $50 and May 06, Monday, for $50 for anyone not attending Ted's class. Deanie Earthman will work with K9 teams wanting some extra work. Deanie will address Decoy/Helper skills and issues a K9 team is wanting to address, even certification. To cover costs for this class we will require five teams each day. We will require that registration is paid by April 15, 2019.

The NPCA seminar always provides ample time for hands on dog training, problem solving and practical's in all disciplines. Our Instructors are presently Handling Police K9s or have retired from law enforcement where they did handle Police K9s, they have ample experience handling and training Police K9s and are experts in the field they're teaching.

Please, it is imperative that you pay for the seminar registrations through the NPCA. You can pay online at the NPCA online store, www.npca.net, or mail a check payable to National Police Canine Association, P.O. Box 538, Waddell, Az, 85355. NPCA Phone 1-877-362-1219.
