

Terms & Conditions

For Trailers, Boats or General Goods

ACT OF GOD – Shipper &/or Owner, understands that Carrier is not liable for losses and/or damage to the described property on the bill of lading due to Acts of God. Shipper further understands and agrees that Carrier's liability is otherwise subject to the contract terms and conditions of the freight bill. Shipper acknowledges the Carrier is not liable for losses and/or damages due to Acts of God.

Shipper &/or Owner agrees that the deposit invoice payment, and any additional payments made, is non-refundable in the event the transport is cancelled by the Shipper for any reason. In the event the transport is cancelled by the Carrier. The deposit invoice and any additional payments will be refunded in full.

In the event the described item on the bill of lading is attached to, or in the care and control of the Carrier, and transport is suddenly cancelled by Shipper or forced to return the described item on the bill of lading by acts other than that of the Carrier. The Shipper will pay the Carrier $300 or $3.00 per loaded mile, whichever is greater. In addition to any previously paid funds.

By accepting the estimate or paying for an invoice for the described property on the bill of lading. You are agreeing to these Service Provider's Terms and Conditions

Thank you,

Patrick W McKenzie Jr
4M Livestock, LLC

• LIVESTOCK •