

RYAN KILGORE

INTERNATIONAL ARTIST

Ryan Kilgore, a native of Atlanta, Georgia, is a distinguished saxophonist who has been passionately playing the saxophone since the tender age of 10.

As a fourth-generation saxophonist, Ryan's musical journey has taken him across 6 continents, gracing over 100 prestigious arenas worldwide.

With over 25 years in the entertainment industry, he has solidified his status as an international saxophonist and philanthropist.

During his time at Clark Atlanta University, Ryan made history as the first freshman to become drum major. He is also a proud member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity of America, Inc.

Throughout his illustrious career, Ryan has contributed to soundtracks and made cameo appearances in movies by Paramount Pictures, Walt Disney, 20th Century Fox, and Tyler Perry Studios. His musical collaborations span genres and include iconic names such as Anita Baker, Prince, Sting, Jeff Beck, John Legend, Ed Sheeran, Gladys Knight, The Jonas Brothers, 2Chainz, T.I., Dave Chappelle, Andy Lau of Hong Kong, Daniel Levi of France, and Alsou of Russia.

In 2015, Ryan founded The Ryan Kilgore Music Foundation (RKMF) with a mission to mentor, teach, and inspire. The foundation aims to raise awareness of the value of music and music literacy in the lives of children.

Recognized for his community contributions, Ryan received the proclamation of Ryan Kilgore Day in Dekalb County, Georgia, on June 1st, 2023.

Ryan's musical inspirations derive from his musically inclined family, marching band experiences, church, mentors, coaches, and a decade-long tour with the legendary Stevie Wonder. From his debut album "Conversations with Love" to his upcoming release, title Believe, Ryan expresses his talks with God and life's purpose through music. The new album promises a tribute to his life of music, featuring high energy, live instrumentation, and innovative use of new music technology.

In essence, Ryan is an exceptional musician who strives to instill the importance of music's role in the enrichment of the human spirit.
