Studio Information &
Parent Handbook
2026–2027 Academic Year

WELCOME

Within our School ATWP bases all classes all genres on structure and grades set by the International Dance Teachers Association (IDTA), Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance (ISTD), London Academy of Music & Dramatic Art (LAMDA) & Acro Dance Teachers Association (ADTA). All students have the option to take their fully graded exam should they choose to within the dance year. Before any exam is booked all students will take a mock examination, should anyone not be confident or ready to take their full exam they may choose to take a medal test in the genre instead. It is highly recommended to all students to take their exams. Having all our classes under several international examination bodies ensures all our students are working to an internationally recognized standard and level. Grades are set to show the development of each genre studied. This benefits the student's technique and dance safety.

Open days are not an uncommon event at ATWP, we want to showcase our classes as we are so very proud of our standards and teaching methods. Summer schools, parties, events, auditions, examinations and of course our bi-annual end of year showcase (recital) are some of the events that all students are invited to attend and be involved with.

We at ATWP strive to be a fun, happy and inclusive school. Our Academy is for those who wish to develop their skills and achieve international recognition with certificates, to socialise, quench their passion for dance and most importantly learn and have fun. There is a place for everyone at ATWP and although some may need more support than others, we will strive to take the time and make every effort for each student that walks through our studio doors.

Please make sure that you have informed the principal of any emergency or medical issues prior to classes, registration paperwork has been handed in and correct emergency numbers are on the form. You can also do this via your Class Manager App.

PAYMENT OF FEES & DATES

How Does Class Fee Payment Work?

Class fees are due between the 1st and 5th of each month. Please note that late payment charges may be applied to accounts where fees remain unpaid after the due date.

ATWP tuition fees are calculated across the academic year and divided into equal monthly payments from September to August. This allows families to budget consistently throughout the year whilst enabling the studio to maintain staffing, venue hire, insurance, operational costs and the extensive additional opportunities we provide.

Monthly tuition fees contribute towards much more than weekly class attendance and help support:

- Weekly tuition and training
- Showcase rehearsals
- Additional performance rehearsals
- Competition preparation and rehearsals
- Backstage supervision and student care at events
- Administration and student support
- Studio facilities, equipment and resources

This payment structure provides a simple and consistent system, ensuring parents know exactly what is due each month without fluctuations throughout the year.

Please note that fees remain payable throughout the academic year regardless of holidays, bank holidays or student absence, as tuition fees represent an annual programme divided into equal monthly payments.

Late Payments

ATWP is a small independent performing arts academy and relies on prompt payment of fees to maintain staffing, facilities and opportunities for our students.

Accounts that remain unpaid after the due date may be subject to late payment charges and students may be unable to participate in classes, examinations, performances, competitions or events until outstanding balances have been settled.

Class Manager Accounts

All students and parents are registered with their own Class Manager Account.

Through your account you can:

- View payment history
- Access invoices and receipts
- Receive studio updates
- View class information
- Access music and resources (where applicable)
- Manage your student account

Additional Charges

Additional charges may apply throughout the year and include:

- Competition entry fees
- Costume fees
- Examination fees
- Workshop and masterclass fees
- Special events and performances

These charges will be added to your Class Manager account when applicable.

Parents will receive an email notification with a secure payment link. Once payment has been made, both you and the studio will receive confirmation, and a receipt will automatically be stored within your account for future reference.

Account Changes

Should you wish to add, remove or amend any classes or packages on your account, please email: athenatheatreworks@outlook.com

Please note that account changes cannot be processed through social media, text message, WhatsApp, or verbal request.

All account changes must be submitted in writing via email.

Costume Fees

What Are Costume Fees?

Each year, ATWP produces a showcase and provides performance opportunities for our students throughout the academic year. To help create a professional performance experience, costumes, accessories and props are provided for students to use during showcases, competitions and selected events.

Whilst ATWP maintains a large costume collection, many costumes require purchasing, adapting, repairing, shipping, storage, professional cleaning and organisation. The cost of purchasing individual costumes can often exceed £50 per costume, per dance.

To help keep performance costs affordable for families, ATWP operates a costume contribution scheme. A non-refundable annual costume fee is charged per student (please refer to the current fee schedule). This contribution allows students to access multiple costumes and props throughout the year without parents needing to purchase a separate costume for every routine.

Students may perform in multiple dances during a showcase or event, with older students often participating in several routines requiring costume changes.

Costume Collection & Return

- Costumes will normally be distributed approximately two weeks before a performance or showcase.
- All costumes will be clearly labelled with the student's name.
- A parent or carer may be asked to sign for costumes upon collection.
- Costumes must be returned immediately following the performance unless otherwise instructed.
- Costumes should be returned unwashed, as ATWP arranges professional cleaning to ensure costume quality and longevity.

Lost or Damaged Costumes

Parents and carers are responsible for ensuring costumes are returned in good condition.

Replacement charges may apply for:

- Lost costumes
- Damaged costumes
- Missing costume items
- Missing accessories or props

ATWP works hard to maintain and reuse costumes wherever possible, helping to reduce costs for families and allowing us to continue providing high-quality productions and performance opportunities for all students.

Thank you for helping us care for our costume collection and create memorable performance experiences for our students. 💜💖

2026–2027 Tuition Fees

Over the past few years, ATWP has proudly awarded several scholarships and bursaries whilst continuing to expand the opportunities available to our students. During this time, our tuition fees have remained largely unchanged.

As the academy continues to grow, we have reviewed our timetable and programme structure. Several duplicate classes have been streamlined, and some genres have been combined to provide greater flexibility, improved progression pathways and, importantly, more family time for our students.

To make things simpler for families, we are introducing a clear and easy-to-understand fee structure from September 2026.

Important Information for September 2026

Reminders

All current students will automatically be transferred into their age-appropriate classes for September. There is no need to re-register unless your contact details or circumstances have changed.

As communicated at the start of the previous academic year, ATWP will be introducing its new fee structure from September 2026. Families will now have the option of either enrolling in individual classes or taking advantage of our new All Inclusive Academy Package, offering greater flexibility and value for students training across multiple genres.

If you would like to add additional classes, amend your timetable or enquire about the All-Inclusive Package, please email the studio and we will update your Class Manager account accordingly.

 athenatheatreworks@outlook.com

All September classes and enrolments should be visible within your Class Manager account from mid-August.
