

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them.

MR 1:19-20

January 24, 2021

February 2nd, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, pulls many mementos from the Catholic cabinet: candles, blessings, processions and Christmas. The Mass of the feast begins with a blessing of candles to be used in church throughout the year and of candles to be used in our homes as well.

The origins of the feast lie in an ancient Jewish custom. On the 40th day after childbirth, parents brought the infant to the Temple to present it to the Lord and to purify the mother. St. Luke tells us that Joseph and Mary sacrificed two birds for the occasion. Count up 40 days after Christmas and you will come to February 2nd.

Until the 1960's, we called this day "The Purification of Mary." The title was changed for several reasons. We no longer hold that women who cooperate with the Creator to give birth need purification. They are rather to be blessed. Also the true significance of the feast concerns Jesus coming to the Temple. He is the Promised One, whose light will shine rays of hope to all the world.

Also on the old calendar, this feast closed the Christmas season. Since it is the feast of the Lord, it takes precedence even when it falls on a Sunday.

Blessed candles in our churches signify the presence of Christ in our community. With Christ as our light, we warm a lost and wintry world. Blessed candles taken home are sacramentals. They can be used on various occasions, such as joyful celebrations; times of prayer, in times of fear or discouragement when we especially need light to guide us.

Bring a candle to church with you next weekend on January 30th or 31st. They will all be blessed at the Masses for you to take home and to use throughout the coming year!

This N That by Deacon Skip

I often exchange e-mails with my sister Mary. She lives with her husband Joel in Alpharetta, Georgia and works in the provost office of Georgia Tech. Ironically this past week in one of our exchanges both of us remarked at how uneasy we have become.

In my time, I've experienced the assassination of John Kennedy; the 67 riots; the to-do over the Vietnam War. I was literally required to evacuate our office building on 9/11. I've lost my job. I survived raising two teenage boys. I've had a stroke and have been treated for prostate cancer. Along the way I buried my mother and my wife. Somehow I made it through all of that none the worse for wear.

Oh, they had their impact, for sure, but there was always a feeling that things would be better. Somehow that feeling is not there now. I don't know if it's a result of our helplessness in the pandemic or a reaction to the violence against our government. As a people, we have a history of rallying together. This may be one of those times when we need to stand at each other's side and prop each other up.

A couple of parishioners have asked if I'm still walking. The answer is yes. The last two weeks I've walked over 45 miles both times. This is probably a reflection of the warmer than normal temps and the lower than normal snowfall. Any return to normal will probably result in my parking myself on the couch and watching bad TV.

Same old same old on my granddaughter's Christmas present. I'm still hoping that one day I will open my door and there it will be. By the way, she turned 13 this past week, and Levi turned 11. My Dad turned 98. Show off.

Don't forget our food pantry.

Acts of Spiritual Communion

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion means uniting one's self in prayer with Christ's sacrifice and worshipping him in his Body and Blood. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

A prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

*I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.*

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

PLEASE JOIN US IN PRAYER FOR YOUNG PEOPLE AND THOSE WHO MINISTER TO THEM!!

WHO IS SAINT JOHN BOSCO??? John Bosco, later known as Don Bosco when he entered the priesthood, was born in Italy in 1815. His mother, the venerable Marherita Occhiena, raised he and his two brothers after losing her husband. The family lived in poverty but nevertheless found great joy in working and serving the Lord.

John grew up to love the Lord and the circus. He learned numerous slight of hand tricks which he later used as a priest to hold the attention of young children long enough to preach the Gospel to them. At the age of 12, John began studying for the priesthood through the charity of a local priest.

Early in his priesthood, John was assigned to minister in the prisons where he met many troubled young men. Moved with compassion, he would become a great evangelist of the young and open numerous orphanages, oratory schools, and social programs to minister to young men.

St. John Bosco was canonized less than fifty years after his death— Pope Pius XI bestowed upon him the title of "Father and Teacher of Youth" at his canonization. The religious order that he founded, the Salesians of Don Bosco, is now the third largest religious order in the world and continues to bring the Gospel to lost and forgotten children the world over!

St. John Bosco is a model for all of us who seek to unleash the Gospel by proclaiming the Good News to the young church! January 31st is St. John Bosco's feast day, and we ask for his intercession as we join together in prayer!

St. John Bosco has served as an inspiration to generations of Christians who seek to bring young people to an encounter of the living Jesus. In the spirit of St. John Bosco, we are inviting you to gather together with hundreds of others to pray for our young people here in the Archdiocese of Detroit. We will also offer prayer for our youth ministers, our catechists, our Catholic school teachers, our coaches, parents, and all those who join us in serving young people. May the Holy Spirit, once again, pour Himself out upon the Archdiocese as we unleash the Gospel for the next generation! What more important work could there be? Thank you for praying with us! - Fr. Stephen Pullis

This initiative is asking for just ONE HOUR of your time! There are one hour time slots spanning over a period of 8 days (January 29-February 5). We ask you to sign up and devote that one hour to praying for young people. You can feel free to sign up for more than one if you'd like. IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO COMMIT TO A SPECIFIC HOUR, please feel free to offer prayers for our young people OFTEN during these 8 days. May God bless you abundantly for your dedication to the young in His church!
