Festival & Grandparents Day by Fr. Larry Zurawski

The festival is only a few days away! Excitement is in the air! The tents are going up and the rides are being assembled. Everyone is excited about the coming fun days. We need to pray for good weather, sell our tickets and volunteer to help. What other place in the world can you go to help out and have a great time? Plus, it is for the benefit of the parish—a win-win situation for everyone. See you soon!

This Sunday is also Grandparents Day in the United States. This observance originated with Marian McQuade of Fayette County, W. V. Her primary motivation was to champion the cause of lonely elderly in nursing homes. She also hoped to persuade grandchildren to tap the wisdom and heritage their grandparents could provide. President Jimmy Carter, in 1978, proclaimed that National Grandparents Day would be celebrated every year on the First Sunday after Labor Day.

Happy Grandparents Day to all grandparents. Know how much we love you and appreciate you everyday of the year.

M & M's

Come join the M & M's. A senior group which meets on the 2nd Thursday of the month at noon in the Fr. Prus Room (Resurrection Room) for Potluck and games. Due to festival, our September meeting will be held one week later on September 19th at 12 Noon. We meet again on the 4th Thursday of the month for a planned outing. Our following meeting is September 26th. Please check us out.

This N That by Deacon Skip

As this article goes to press, Labor Day has come and gone. I hated Labor Day growing up. It only meant one thing—that when we got up in the morning, we were going back to school. My mother used to tell the neighbors and our relatives that I was bored in the summer and could not wait to get back to school. All seven of us children would unanimously agree that Mom was clueless. I was very content living at home doing nothing. I think the other six of us were too. Labor Day is only a date on the calendar, but we've seen the signs that summer is ending. A lot of our flowers have gone out of bloom; we harvested the last of the vegetables; some of the trees have started turning color; the other morning, when I stuck my head out to grab the newspaper off the porch, a big vee of geese honked their way across the dawn sky. Pretty soon they'll be crossing Wayne Road in rush hour. We know what's coming next around here. The Farmer's Almanac predicts a harsh winter: corn husks have been thicker than normal and spider webs bigger than usual. Doesn't matter; winter is coming and we know it. Enjoy the last gasps of summer. See you at the Festival.

Men's Retreat

Have you been thinking about God lately? Friday evening September 27 to Sunday noon September 29.

Perhaps this is a special time for you. Renew your inner life at our parish retreat for men. You'll be amazed how much the retreat will help you find how God is active in your daily experience and what peace this awareness can bring you. The retreat theme this year is "Who do YOU say I AM?" For information or to register, call John Krause at 734-765-7161 or Jeff Gorman at 760-390-6573, the Retreat Center at 313-535-9563 or go to www.stpaulretreat.org to make a reservation.

Archdiocese of Detroit Safe Environments Initiatives

The Archdiocese of Detroit has in place the following initiatives designed to promote creation and maintenance of safe environments for children, the elderly and persons with disabilities. We strive to increase awareness of safe programs and surroundings and to empower children, youth and adults to avoid and report unsafe or harmful situations. AOD SAFE ENVIRONMENTS POLICY Adopted in April 2006, and revised in October 2007, the current Archdiocesan Safe Environments Policy specifies requirements for volunteers in parish events or ministry to complete a Criminal History Background Check and attendance at Protecting God's Children for Adults workshop.

CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECKS Anyone 18 or over who may have contact with children, the elderly, or persons with disabilities must submit to a background check before starting work or volunteer assignment. School and parishes only look for convictions related to the work or volunteer assignment to which the applicant is assigned. These forms and results are held in the strictest confidence.

This form can be picked up from Cindy Portis or found online at our website: thomastheapostle.org on the "Volunteer Opportunities" page and the form will download to your computer. You can also pick one up in the parish office.

Any questions, please contact

St. Thomas Family Festival Prayer

God, our Father,
 source of health and all goodness,
 we place our parish project in your hands.
 Bless all those who work on our Parish Festival.
 Grant them peace, health and joy.
 Bless our work with satisfaction,
 and our days with beautiful weather.
 Bless all those who come to our Festival
 with laughter,
 a time of enjoyment and delight.
 We ask this through Your Son
 Jesus, our Lord and Savior who lives and reigns forever and ever.
 Amen

Time has almost run out to get ready for our festival. Lots of last minute things to do. Please sell or buy your raffle tickets. Returns can be made at the parish office or in the Activities building during the festival. We still need a chairperson for the cheer wheel game. Also we need volunteers for the outside food booth, some for the Pop and chip booth, some for the boutique and for the all around town raffles. There also some sit down jobs.

Other things needed are gift cards, scratch off Mi. lottery tickets, bottles of cheer, dolls games etc , craft items and festival weekend baked goods. Also last call for the garage sale.

We will have the last sign-up this weekend or you can check out our new web site at thomastheapostle.org. Click on on the opening page and in the right hand corner there click on festival. At the bottom it will have a yellow tab that says volunteer. Click on that and it will take your to Jill & Tom's email. You can then sign-up by email to work at the festival.

Please join in the children's bike parade at 5:00 on Friday at the start of the festival. We invite all parish members old or new to join in making our parish festival the best yet. Thanks to all who participated in any way for our festival .

YOUTH HARD AT WORK!!

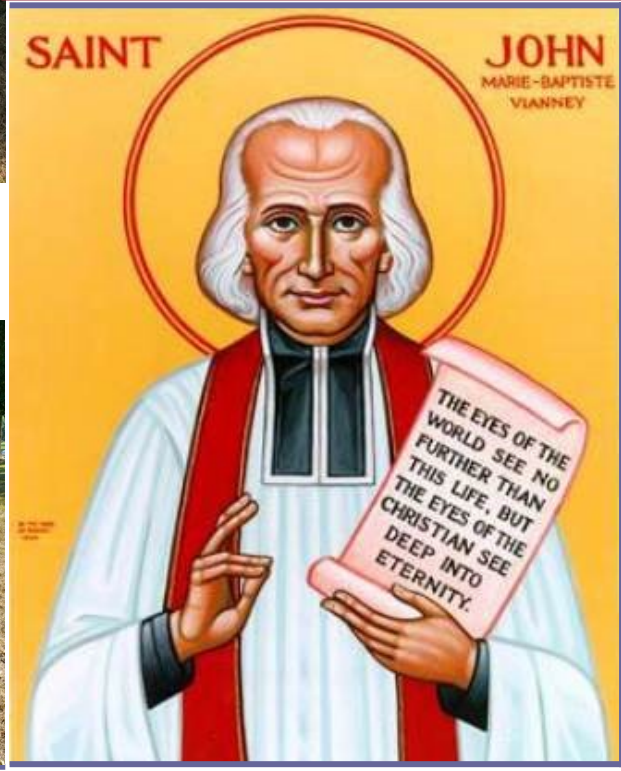

What a rewarding way to spend a Saturday afternoon. We had a few of our young people and their families head over to Holy Sepulchre Cemetery to honor and celebrate St. John Vianney Day.

We were able to honor our beloved deceased by cleaning headstones of hundreds of priests, deacons and religious sisters who have given their life in service to the Lord. As we remember our patron saint of parish priests, let us also pray for an increase in vocations to religious life!
