FESTIVAL 2019

GARAGE SALE

Welcome to the Festival by Fr. Larry Zurawski

Welcome to the St. Thomas the Apostle parish festival. This is my first year here as pastor. I am told that it is the 52nd annual festival and it is delightful to be here for it. Our festival is a grand event that everyone can be proud of. People come from Garden City, neighboring communities and from near and far. A festival, especially one of our magnitude does not just happen. It takes a lot of time and hard work to make it successful. A special thanks to Jill Kolpacke and Tom Pociask, who are the chairpersons. A special thanks to the countless volunteers who make it happen. A special thanks to all who come and support the festival in countless ways. A special thanks to the sponsors and donors. Please support their businesses. We at St. Thomas are very grateful and God will reward you. As I write this note in the beginning of July, even now I can sense the excitement that is coming soon. I can hear the music, taste the food, and envision the many activities that will go on. The ticket raffle is our biggest fundraiser and thousands of dollars will be given away in prizes. Welcome to the festival 2019. You are always welcome to join us here at St. Thomas anytime throughout the year. Have an awesome time and God bless you and all of your loved ones.
Fr. Lawrence Zurawski
Pastor.

This N That by Deacon Skip

Every year at the parish festival garage sale, we receive tidal waves of glasses, coffee mugs, jigsaw puzzles, and cd's. Once again we were not disappointed. We received a multitude of glasses, coffee mugs, jigsaw puzzle, and cd's. We are grateful because the items generally sell-not for a lot of money, but they have a tendency to move.

Every year we receive a number of items we can't figure out or explain. Once again we were not disappointed. They have a tendency to act the opposite of the tidal waves.

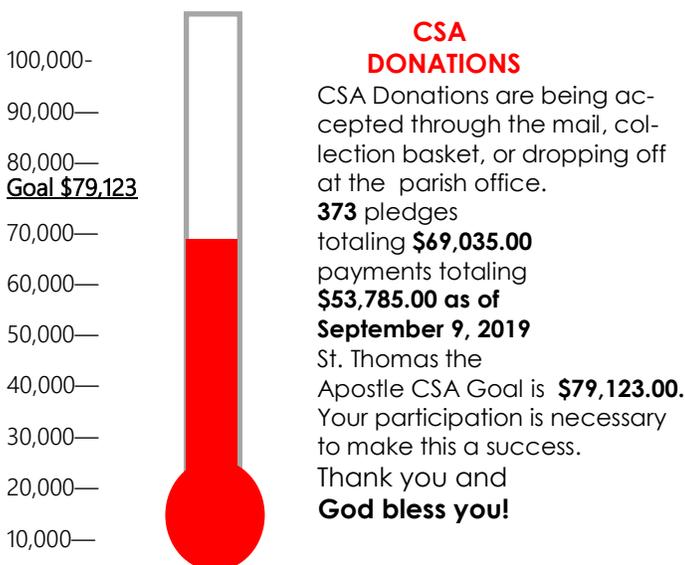

Every year there is a particular set of items that stand out. This year we have received a preponderance of tools, hardware, and wait for it: bread making machines. The tools and hardware we can basically understand. They are probably a reflection of the number of elderly gentlemen we have buried in the past year. If anyone is looking for tools of any kind we can help. We also have a healthy selection of hardware. We can almost compete with Northside Hardware.

The bread making machines are open to speculation. Perhaps bread making is a fad that has run its day. Perhaps there is a new item out there that does the job better. Perhaps people have discovered it is just as easy to buy bread at the store. Whatever the reason, if anyone is looking to buy a bread making machine, there is a good chance we can be of service.

Calling all good Christian men to experience fellowship, purpose and Christian Practice. I am personally inviting all men, 18 years and older, to give it some thought to becoming a Knight of Columbus. What that means as a commitment, is to attend at least 2 meetings per year (the 2nd Wednesday of the month in the ministries building across from the church at 7:00PM for one hour), participate in one charitable activity with the organization (i.e. tootsie roll drive, fund raising dinner, other), pay your dues ($50 per year) and attend church regularly. In addition, once you get to know everyone and see that it is not painful, there is a lot more you can be involved in. Our council supports several charitable organizations such as the Penrickton Center for Blind, Special Olympics, Boysville of Michigan (Holy Cross Children's services), Scholarships for Catholic High School Children and more. We also participate in many activities in our own parish such as the festival, sponsoring donut Sundays at the parish and dinner & youth functions. Many of us participate in the church's ministries such as Deacons, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Parish Council Members, Ushers and other positions. Our council has a fraternal dinner night out once a month at a different local restaurant. There are plenty of opportunities to contribute and participate as your schedule allows you. Being a member helps you to grow further as a person. Nevertheless, more importantly, it allows you to contribute to our locality, your church, those in needs and brother man and live as God would want you too, charitably.
 God Bless You and Vivat Jesus!

I have on my desk a calendar that gives you a new "church sign" each day. Last week it said:

Everyday is a gift Some days you get socks!
 That made me laugh. It sure is true isn't it? Everyday is a gift...we greet the gift from the time we open our eyes until our feet hit the floor. It unfolds every minute, something new, something to discover, something to attend too. Some happy days, some sad, some just another day. Each day is like a different pair of socks. Some days we have brand new socks with good elastic other days the socks we put on slip right down on our foot. The elastic is all worn out, they don't stay up time to throw them out. We throw out socks that get holes in them because no one darns socks like they used to. Sometimes I feel like throwing out a day, don't you? If it were just that easy as tossing that old worn out pair of socks away. We don't even give it a second thought. That's how we have to treat those days that slide down our being with worn out elastic. I like to wear patterned socks. You know the ones—some have spots on them in different colors, stripes of shades of blue. I have some socks that have llama's on them, chili peppers, musical notes, sewing notions, socks for every holiday and season. It depends on what I'm wearing that day to what socks I pull out of the drawer. They are much easier to sort from the laundry too! Years ago someone I worked with had silly socks as I like to call them on. When I admired them, they said: "life is so short to be serious all the time so silly socks brighten my day." How true.

Recently my little 3 year old grandson's daycare class graphed the color of socks in their classroom. Turns out they had more white socks, a few gray socks, some pink and purple socks. Mostly white socks for toddlers I guess.

As you put on your socks each day be reminded of the fact that you have two feet to walk with God each day in the gift of the day you have received.

Walk on in your fancy socks,
 Cindy Portis

Things to Save:

- Stamps that come on your snail mail—there is a mission that collects those to help the poor
 - Pop tabs—goes to help the kidney foundation
 - Comics from the newspaper—an organization that sends care packages to the military uses them as packing in their boxes! Gives the troops something to read
 - Egg cartons—for our food pantry. We can purchase large flats of eggs and divide them up to share with the clients who come to the pantry
- Any of these items can be placed by the food baskets in the gathering space of church when you come to Mass. Thank you for your continued generosity.

The long wait for our festival is over! Come out to see the best free entertainment around. Invite your friends, relatives and family to enjoy great food and all the festival has to offer.

Keep bringing in those delicious baked goods for the bake sale. We never have enough for the entire week-end. You can drop off baked goods all week-end in the activities building. You can also bring in your sold raffle ticket returns all week-end in the activities building.

Please save and return the wires from the festival signs next week to the gathering area. This will save us money next year.

If you have time on Monday we need help tearing down and putting things away after the festival.

We would like to thank everyone who helped in any way to make our festival a success. We could not do it without you! We have a great parish and the best people in it.

Thanks for another great festival.
