

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

All Saints & All Souls
Rev. Larry Zurawski
November 3, 2019

On All Saints Day we celebrate the promise that God does not forget the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, the pure in heart, the peacemakers—but rather, God blesses them. Today we trust that God does not forget us in our sorrow, when we are persecuted and rejected, when we are tired and worn down. No rejection, no pain, not even death itself is the end of the story of our life in Jesus Christ who blesses us with eternal life.

The saints bear witness to this in their lives, through their struggles, and even in their death. Through Jesus and his death and resurrection, we have a share with the saints. Today we have an invitation to the best table in town—the Supper of the Lamb—where we will join our voices with all the angels and saints in singing praise to God.

“Their glory fills us with joy, and their communion with us in the church gives us inspiration and strength as we hasten on our pilgrimage of faith, eager to meet them.”—(Preface of All Saints)

May we live in such a way as to be among their number when the saints go marching in.

The following day, November 2, is All Souls Day. While it is not a holy day of obligation, like All Saints Day is, many people come to Mass on this day to remember and pray for all of our beloved departed. We remember especially those dearest to us and those who died this past year.

I would like to thank all the people who assist the grieving families throughout the year. The adult servers, the choir, hospitality, follow up phone calls are some of the many ways that our parishioners give of their time and talent to those who have lost a loved one. All of you are greatly appreciated. May God reward your kindness and compassion.

This N That by Deacon Skip

Thank you to all who sent sympathy cards when my brother passed away. Many of you included personal wishes which were quite touching and eloquent. The cards were a very kind gesture on your part.

For some reason, a couple of parishioners have questioned my name. I go by Deacon Skip. For the record, I am Leon Anthony Rodgers. My mother named me Leon for my Dad and Anthony for her father. The irony here is that my Dad has gone by Leo for 96 years now and my grandfather went by Tony.

So where did Skip come from? I was born in the age when the expectant father sat in the waiting room until a nurse brought his new offspring for him to see. My Dad's first words were, "Hiya, Skipper." The Skip part has stuck now for 70 years. I will be forever grateful.

Speaking of my Dad, I ran up to Frankfort to visit him right after Fr. Larry's installation Mass. My father is doing very well intellectually. He is quite articulate and conversational; physically, time has taken its toll. We all wish he and my stepmother lived a whole lot closer so we could get by to help them more often and more easily.

We're into the season of giving, although giving never goes away. Fairly shortly, the Thanksgiving Turkey will be up in the church Gathering Area and soon after the Wishing Tree will go up. Once again, our parish Christian Services Ministry will be calling on our generosity to help others. Please include both appeals in your holiday plans.

Ministries Center by Cindy Portis (734) 425-9771

At this time of the year our thoughts turn to giving thanks for all the blessings we have bestowed upon us. It is also the time of year when we reach out to our neighbors with our prayers and gifts of food. We are planning to assemble 80 Thanksgiving Baskets this year and will also need a turkey for each basket. We are also accepting gift cards in the amount of $20 for the family to purchase their own turkey.

Our FEATHER A BASKET TURKEY BOARD is in the gathering space with these items on a feather. Pluck a feather for the item you wish to purchase. We will collect items through November 17th. You may drop off your donations in the baskets in church on weekends or stop by the ministries building during the week. Extra items will be used for the shelves of the food pantry once the baskets are filled.

|---|--------------------------------|
| Cake mix/frosting                  | Pie Crusts              |
| Pie Fillings-Pumpkin/ Apple/Cherry | Peanut Butter and Jelly |
| Sweet Potatoes                     | Cranberry Sauce         |
| Cereal and Oatmeal                 | Gravy                   |
| Instant Potatoes                   | Canned fruit            |
| Stuffing Mix                       |                                |
| Soup                               |                                |

Please know that your generous support continues to impact the lives of the families who will receive a Thanksgiving Basket this year from the people of St. Thomas the Apostle.

Things to Save:

- Stamps that come on your snail mail—there is a mission that collects those to help the poor
- Pop tabs—goes to help the kidney foundation
- Comics from the newspaper—an organization that sends care packages to the military uses them as packing in their boxes! Gives the troops something to read.
- Egg cartons—for our food pantry. We can purchase large flats of eggs and divide them up to share with the clients who come to the pantry. We share excess egg cartons with other food pantries! Any of these items can be placed by the food baskets in the gathering space of church when you come to Mass. Thank you for your continued generosity.
