The End of Time
Rev. Larry Zurawski
November 17, 2019

Someone in the papal audience asked the late Blessed Pope John XXIII what we should be doing when Jesus comes again. The pope thought a minute and then said, "Look busy."

Norman Vincent Peal’s book, "The Power of Positive Thinking," suggested three steps to a successful life. First, convince yourself that you can do it. Second, get God’s help. Third, avoid any negativity. Dale Carnegie, in his best seller, "How to win Friends and Influence People," observed that most of the important things in the world have been accomplished by people who have kept on trying when there seemed to be no hope at all. Believe that you will succeed and you will. Both authors sold a million books.

The Bible is the best selling book of all time. Examples of positive thinking abound in the teachings of Jesus. In today’s gospel, Jesus warns us that dire events are on the way, but that we should not worry. He says to us, "Stand firm and you will save yourselves."

Some people are fascinated with speculating about the end of the world. Every so often fundamental groups give us precise dates and times for its demise. With so many earthquakes, wars, famines, fires, and floods, it does seem that the predictions of Scripture for the end of the world are soon to be realized.

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, we read about the deeper concerns regarding time—the end of time. There are many ways to measure time. The fact is, however, no matter how we measure it, we live in God’s time. God became human and lived among us in time. In God’s time, the world will end. Jesus warned us not to try to figure it out. Use the “now” time for good, working and building for things that really matter. When we live that way, we do not need to worry about the end times. So, when Jesus comes again, “look busy” doing the Lord’s work.
This past Saturday I pulled a baby-sitting gig at Steve and Audrey’s. There is nothing extraordinary about baby-sitting, but this was the first time in a long time I had baby sat at night. Lately I’ve been watching Elijah from time to time in the afternoon or mid-morning while Mom runs off and takes care of something. The parents were going out and did not want the grandkids left alone in the house after dark.

Everything went well until bed time. The universal bed-time on Saturday night in that house is 9. Jordan, the oldest, had been left in charge of the task of rounding up everyone for bed. He actually did a pretty good job of it, but slowly but surely, one person after another slowly snuck down the stairs on one pretext or another. I shooed a couple back upstairs; Jordan came down in a manhunt a couple of times, especially for the youngest, Elijah. The only one who went to bed and stayed there was the family dog, Bella.

I was sitting on the couch in their family room watching a rerun of a particularly mediocre version of SNL when I glanced over and who was sitting next to me, but Elijah, watching intently right with me. I tried a couple of times to talk him into going back upstairs, but he wasn’t having any of that idea. Right about the time I was going to carry him upstairs, Jordan came and carried him back up to his bed. I doubt sincerely that Elijah was a die-hard fan of SNL. I think his issue was that Mom and Dad were not home, and he preferred sitting on the same couch as me until they arrived-keep me company in the dark.

At any rate, here’s to the little ones who look for order and security in their lives. Here’s to the married couples who are smart enough to take a couple of hours off from being parents and have fun together-Steve and Audrey actually went square dancing, of all things. And here’s to all the parents everywhere who try to maintain an aura of order and discipline in their households and teach responsibility along the way. And here’s to Bella, who respects the meaning of bed time.

“For the Holy Spirit will teach you at the moment what you should say.”
Luke 12:12

Today I am sitting here wondering what to say to you who are reading this. Well, let me digress a little. I am blessed with the opportunity to be a Lector, an Altar Server and a member of our parish council. Before I go into performing any of these functions, I pray to the Blessed Mother for help not to make mistakes, to the Holy Spirit for Wisdom and peace so I am not nervous, to St. Peter to control my feelings & temper, I pray to Jesus to say any words as he would have me say them and for those that hear, to not just hear, but listen and learn from the words. I pray that I do well and to be a good example, not for my gratification, but to help others to want to volunteer and do well.

They say in sports, how you practice is how you play. Isn’t it funny that life is the same way. When you are finding yourself in one of the moments that you wonder what is happening, what am I doing, what do I say, ask the Holy Spirit to teach you at the moment what you should say or do. Follow his lead and be at peace, all will be well. I pray that what I have to say may strike a chord with you and mean something to help you for even a moment. Love you all!

God Bless You and Vivat Jesus!

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS

There are several ways you can help this holiday season here in the parish. Here are some events being held, if you have questions or would like to help in some way, please call Cindy at the office.

Thanksgiving baskets—Thanksgiving basket delivery will be on November 23rd, Saturday from 8:30 am until 11:30 am. The recipients come that day and pick up the basket of food and a turkey. At that time, they complete the Wish tree sheet with the most needed clothing items that will go on the tree.

Wish tree—will be up the week of Thanksgiving with tags supporting the following:

- Garden City school families
- Parish and Religious Formation families
- White socks, t-shirts for men and women

Wish tree delivery with food baskets will take place on Saturday, December 21st from 8:30 til 11:30 am. The family that are recipients of the Thanksgiving Baskets and Wish tree tags are names that we receive from Garden City schools, our own Parish and Religious Formation office. Last year we had over 526 tags for children on this list. We also had tags to support homeless shelters that ask for support.

WINTER COATS AND SLEEPING BAGS

We will also be collecting gently used sleeping bags and winter coats of all sizes from Children’s to Adult. These will be given to outreach centers in Detroit to help those who find themselves displaced from their homes or on the streets. Gently worn winter boots, hats and gloves are also accepted. They can just be placed in the gathering space by the wish tree.

If you would like to help distribute any of these items, please call the office and talk to Cindy.

Many hands make light work. It is a gratitude filled day helping others in our community.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

Join us Thanksgiving day for Mass in the morning at 8:30 to offer prayers of gratitude to God for all you have in your life. Take home a blessed loaf of bread from Mass that morning to share with your family. A loaf of bread from the Lord’s table to your family table. Blessings abound when shared with each other.

Be grateful for all you have to share with others,
Cindy Ports

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU to Cub Scout Pack 753 and Troop 1241 (along with their parents as helpers) who held a Food Drive for our Parish Pantry. They spent their Saturday afternoon picking up over 30 bags of non-perishable items to help those in our community who benefit from the pantry. It filled two tables in our hallways and the kids were so excited with how much “stuff” they were able to collect. Good job to these kind and generous young people!
