

Weekend Announcements October 12 & 13, 2019

Father Larry will be installed as our pastor of St. Thomas the Apostle next weekend on Sunday at the 11 am Mass. Ice Cream social reception to follow. Please plan on attending.

All weekday masses will be held in the Church this week. Wednesday morning Communion Service will still be held in chapel.

The Parish Office will be closed ***tomorrow/ today

The Knights of Columbus are holding a Tootsie Roll Drive this weekend. Proceeds go to the Penrickton Center for the Blind and Special Olympics. Also, they will be selling Turkey tickets for one of the 6 turkeys they will be raffling off. Proceeds help our food pantry and the K of C Catholic High School scholarship fund. They are also selling advanced tickets for an Oktoberfest dinner on Friday October 25th.

Our parish is hosting TRUNK OR TREAT on Sunday, October 27 from 2pm-4pm. We get LOTS OF treaters but we need trunks and candy to make this event a success. Please call Missy to sign up to be a TRUNK at this event. Donations of candy can be dropped off at church by the calderon in the gathering space or at the parish office.

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about becoming Catholic, or would like to complete the Sacraments of Initiation, or just want to know more about the Catholic Church, please call the parish office.

Please return your wires from the festival signs in the box found in the gathering area. The wires can be used for next year's festival signs.

The Ladies Rosary Altar Sodality will have football squares available beginning next weekend for the upcoming Michigan/Michigan State game.

For these and other events read the parish bulletin or check out the new website at thomastheapostle.org!
