

Diversity Award

The annual Arizona Education Association Diversity Award recognizes excellence in teaching or promoting diversity, tolerance, and respect for humankind through an instructional program or curriculum.

ELIGIBILITY:

- The recipient(s) must be an AEA member or team of AEA members
- Recognition for excellence in diversity may be given for:
 - Implementing a curriculum that promotes diversity in an educational setting;
 - Implementing an instructional program that promotes a positive atmosphere, tolerance, respect, and global appreciation for all humankind; or,
 - Increasing student achievement as a result of a diversity curriculum

GUIDELINES:

1. No party may submit more than one nomination per year.
2. Nominations shall be submitted on the AEA Diversity Award Nomination Form. Supplemental materials submitted with the nomination will not be returned.
3. Once a party has received the award, it may not be nominated again for the same curriculum, program, or activity.
4. Nominations may be submitted by any AEA member, local association, committee, or task force.
5. The AEA Board of Directors or their designee shall receive the nominations and determine the award recipient(s). The AEA Board of Directors may not select a recipient.
