BMCA MISSION STATEMENT

To promote the exchange of resources and information that deters crime and secures our communities through the development of partnerships with fellow neighborhood organizations and city/county agencies and departments.

THE BMCA SUPPORTS COMMUNITY PROGRAMS AND PARTICIPATION IN BLOCK WATCH & PNP

Block Watches are a long-standing partnership between the city and citizens. This is a program of neighbors looking out for each other. It is designed to enlist the active participation of citizens to reduce crime by reporting suspicious activity to police and improve the quality of life in their neighborhoods. If you are interested in starting up a Block Watch on your street or for your neighborhood, please contact the Black Mountain Police Precinct Community Action Officers:
