

Hey. you! Yes. YOU!

I have been praying for you for longer than you know.

You say "How is this possible?"

Well, because even Jesus said, "before I formed you in your mother's womb, I knew you." The Bible is full of people that felt invisible, disappointed, disqualified, and discouraged, but when Jesus walked by, the fire of life burned inside their hearts and they knew that there was more to their story—there was something more than what they could see with their eyes. You may have felt like them for a long time, but as you're reading this letter, I want you to know something. Before the world was even created, Jesus knew that he would be the one to make a way just for you. He already saw your life, your purpose, your pain, your gifts, your dreams, your mistakes, and he came himself to make sure that you would have life, a Heavenly Father, a family, a future...life more abundantly. He didn't come here and die, so that you could just barely survive. He came back to life after the cross, so that you also could have a brand new life.

I didn't grow up in Indiana. Jesus actually brought me here, to New Castle, to make sure YOU knew that He is your miracle NOW, and He wants YOU a part of His Kingdom! It's unlike anything this world has to offer! He wants your life to be full of purpose and joy. You are valuable to Him, beyond what you can understand, and just as He loved you before you were born, my heart is already burning to see you walking in the fullness of everything God has for you. You are not overlooked or invisible, in fact, I see you now, ready to jump out of the grave and really live, you just needed someone to say the Word! I shout it everywhere I can, and I've seen Jesus do miracles all over the world.

You may not know how it's possible, or why God chose you, but there is room and a place for you right now...right in the middle of this thing. This kind of life is just not possible without Him. Jesus is coming back again soon, but He is waiting on you, and I can't wait to tell you all about it. I'm here to help, serve and spread the same life to you that Jesus gave to me many years ago.

No matter your age, background, history, or culture, all you need to do is say, YES! Answer the call of Jesus, to follow him, to love him, to encounter him, to get to know him, to have faith in him, and watch the miracles he does in you and through you.

Get here quickly! I love you, and I can't wait to meet you!
