Shelby Klein was born and raised in Miami, Florida. She graduated from Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton with a degree in Communication Studies! After graduation, Shelby traveled to Israel during the summer to do an internship at a startup company there. Then, she got offered a full-time job working at the Greater Miami Jewish Federation! She works for two departments there: Elevate Leadership and Jewish Volunteer Center.

Shelby was very involved in Sigma Kappa at FAU, where she served as the Standards of Excellence Chair and was on a few committees. Now as a post grad, Shelby is an active member of the Sigma Kappa Miami Alumnae chapter. During her free time, Shelby loves to travel, try different restaurants in the area, check out different coffee shops, and shop.

Shelby previously served MWP as Service Chair. Thank you for all your good work!
