Kim Lovell is a Chi Omega from the University of Miami (C-A-N-E-S!!). She was born in Miami. Three months later her father, who flew for Eastern Airlines, was transferred to Boston. She spent her childhood in New Hampshire and returned to Florida for high school. Upon graduation from UM, she worked in many positions throughout the property and casualty insurance industry. After the birth of her first child, she changed profession to become full-time CEO of her household.

Never one to stay at home, Kim enjoys giving back to her community where she has volunteered at her sons' schools in many capacities. She has also served on various volunteer boards, Cub Scouts, sports leagues and the local Wildlife and Nature Center. Kim also served for 6 years as House Corporation President of the Chi Omega chapter at the University of Miami, as well as, Advisory Board Chairman. In addition, Kim is currently serving as Vice President of the Chi Omega Miami-Dade Alumnae Association and as Historian for the Chi Omega Fort Lauderdale Alumnae Association. Not only is she a MWP member serving on the Membership Committee, but she is also a member of the Stuart (FL) Area Panhellenic.

Kim is married to her college sweetheart who was an Owl-man for her Chi Omega chapter and is also a former Sebastian the Ibis (UM's school mascot). Kimberly has two sons, a daughter-in-law (KKr), a 2 ½ year old grandson and a month-old granddaughter. Kim and Rich love to travel. Life is rewarding and full!
